CONDITIONS IN MEXICO SERIOUS

American Government Does Not Appreciate That Fact Says Lionel Carden.

DON'T EXPECT INTERVENTION

Ambassador Page Reported to Wilson That the British Attitude is Leave Matters Alone Until Election.

Mexico City, Oct. 21.—"The dissolution of Congress by President Huerta was purely an internal affair of Mexico which could not possibly have any bearing upon the presentation of my credentials," said Sir Lionel Carden, the British minister, when asked today concerning the comments in the press growing out of the coincidence of the two vents.

"The instructions of my government were definite," he continued. "Had it been desired that I should withhold presentation of my credentials, I would have been so advised. Personally it is not presumed that I knew whether the dissolution of Congress was an act authorized by the laws of the country. I am not sure but that it is. The matter was wholly within the discretion of my government and should not be the subject of comment."

The minister declined to talk about recommendations that might be made concerning intervention. He said he was inclined to believe the United States did not fully appreciate the seriousness of conditions in Mexico, which in his opinion were due to such a lack of accord between the government and the people and such a diversion of aspirations among the revolutionists that no one element could be expected to dominate the situation.

Education of the people to an appreciation of their responsibilities was the only solution he could see. He saw no reason why the present state of affairs might not continue indefinitely. He never seriously believed the United States intended to intervene.

England's Attitude.

London, Oct. 21.—In his discussion of Mexican affairs with the American ambassador, Walter H. Page, yesterday, Sir Edward Grey declined to bind the British government to any particular policy after the elections in Mexico.

In this respect, therefore, the policy of the British government differs from that of the United States. The British attitude, according to Sir Edward Grey, is that matters should be left alone until after the election and that future action should be based on their result.

America Not Pleased.

Washington, Oct. 21.—Dispatches were received at the State Department today from Ambassador Page describing in detail his conference with Sir Edward Grey, the British foreign minister, concerning the attitude of Great Britain in Mexico.

The position of the British foreign office was explained by the ambassador substantially as indicated in the press dispatches from London.

The American government, it is known, is not entirely pleased with the British government's policy, administration officials being particularly disappointed by the declaration of Sir Edward Grey that nothing thus far had occurred in Mexico to change the British view that recognition of Huerta was the correct policy.

The attitude of the administration here is that the forcible arrest of most of the members of the Mexican Congress, and the arbitrary assumption by General Huerta of the legislative powers in themselves constitute acts which materially alter the state of affairs in Mexico.

There were no developments in the situation as far as any new expression of policy. The cabinet discussed the subject briefly.

Will Aid Others.

Mexico City, Oct. 21.—The aid of the American State Department has been extended to the Germans, French, English and Spaniards held by the rebel general, Villa, at Torreon. Through the American consular agent at Torreon, the rebel chief has been advised that the American government expects the same protection and privileges shall be extended to other Nationals as are enjoyed by Americans. Villa has been asked pointed to permit these people to depart from the city if they so desire or to give them assurances of proper protection should they remain, according to dispatches to Saltillo. Villa is reported to be holding the foreigners as hostages against an attack by the Federal forces.

The Spanish minister, Senor Cologan, was informed today by Foreign Minister Moheno that the government had no means of communication with Torreon and could do nothing in reference to foreigners held as hostages by General Villa.

Diaz at Vera Cruz.

Vera Cruz, Oct. 21.—General Felix Diaz, candidate for the Mexican Presidency, who is on his way to Vera Cruz aboard the steamer Corcovado will be permitted to land tomorrow morning. But there must be no demonstration. This is the order received from the capital.

A small army of detectives is here from Mexico City and troops are held in quarters. Should the enthusiasm of the Diaz partisans outweigh their judgment and in the opinion of the authorities the peace of the city be thereby disturbed the soldiers and police have orders to shoot.

The candidacy of General Huerta and General Blanquet was proclaimed in unsigned hand bills distributed here today. General Diaz in a wireless message received this evening, announced his intention of remaining here tomorrow and proceeding to Mexico City Thursday.

WATSON'S CASE THROWN OUT

Judge Foster Brings Trial to Sudden Close by Quashing Indictment Against Editor of National Known Magazine.

Augusta, Ga., Oct. 21.—Holding that the indictment charging Thomas E. Watson, editor-author and former Presidential candidate, with sending obscene matter through the mails, was illegal, Federal Judge Rufus E. Foster today ordered the case thrown out of court.

In sustaining the motion of the defense, made yesterday, asking that the indictment be quashed, Judge Foster brought the trial to an abrupt close. The largest audience ever assembled in the Federal Court room here attended today's sessions and when the judge announced his ruling dismissing the charges against the Georgia editor, the spectators broke into thunderous cheers. Judge Foster paid no attention to this demonstration which quickly subsided.

It was solely upon the contention raised by Watson himself that under the Federal statute the entire alleged obscene article, and not portions of it, must be included in the indictment, that the court ordered the case dismissed. Extended argument on the motion had been made by S. G. McLendon, Watson's principal attorney. Watson, who is a lawyer, and has been admitted to practice before United States District courts, then spoke briefly. He laid stress upon his claim that the indictment should not select certain passages of the article written by him, but should include the entire matter. He said that unless this were true, it would be possible to indict persons mailing copies of the Bible or the criminal code of Georgia.

Argument against the motion by United States District Attorney Alexander Akerman was brief and limited to a defense of the government's position that the indictment need

Cuban Congress Will Not Convene

Havana, Oct. 21.—Because of the refusal of Congress to convene in extraordinary session to consider the Presidential message urgently recommending a new foreign loan of $15,000,000, President Menocal today issued a public appeal, declaring he may be compelled to have recourse to extraordinary measures in the event of continued obstinacy on the part of Congress.

The President explains then that the urgency of the loan is caused by the necessity of paying off the indebtedness incurred by the previous Liberal administration.

Washington Concerned.

Washington, Oct. 21.—The State Department officials were concerned tonight over the situation which has arisen in Havana as a result of the refusal of the Cuban Congress to convene in extraordinary session to consider the proposed foreign loan. There was much speculation as to what the executive can do if his Congress continues to refuse to come together. President Menocal's call for the extraordinary session set October 1st as the day the two bodies were to convene, but postponement from time to time has been necessary owing to the continued refusal of Liberal Senators and Representatives to appear.

The presence of two-thirds of both houses is required under the Cuban constitution in order to convene Congress and there is no provision for the arrest of enough absentees to constitute a quoum.

While the Cuban President can adjourn Congress, it was pointed out that he cannot dissolve that body and call for new elections. The present Congress was elected last April for two years.

No statement of the attitude of the American State Department could be obtained, though it is known that the United States several months ago under the authority invested in it by the Platt Amendment, received from President Menocal a request for permission to negotiate the loan and acceded to the proposition.

SULZER LEAVING EXECUTIVE HOME

Bound for New York to Open Campaign and to War on Tammany.

HIS ELECTION IS CONCEDED

Impeached Governor Goes to Metropolis on Pullman Car "Epire State" Declares He Has Not Deserted Old Party.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 21.—William Sulzer tonight departed from Albany in silence. Not a friend outside his official family accompanied him to the railroad station. Not a cheer greeted him as, with his hat drawn over his eyes and his chin buried in his overcoat collar, he walked slowly down the platform and boarded his car, by coincidence the "Empire State."

"I have no regrets," were his last words. "If I had everything to do over again I would do just as I have done. My fight has just begun."

Half a dozen of his advisers will follow him to New York tomorrow to aid him in starting his fight for the Assembly.

Final plans for the campaign were drawn up tonight at the last meal the impeached Governor ate in the executive mansion.

Among his guests was James C. Garison, who, due to his criticism of some of the anti-Sulzer assemblymen, brought himself in contempt of the Assembly and has spent the last month in the Albany county penitentiary. He was released today by Judge Cochrane at Hudson into the custody of his counsel until next Friday. Garison plans to participate in the Sulzer campaign if he is not remanded to prison.

Mrs. Sulzer Not Sorry.

"I'm going back to New York," Mrs. Sulzer said smiling, "and I cannot say that I am sorroy."

Asked about a rumor that she would speak from the same platform with her husband during the campaign she said she had no such plans but was willing to do it.

"If I am asked, you bet I will," she declared. "I could tell some things that would be interesting."

News that Sulzer was on the train spread quickly and a curious throng of passengers hurried back through the coaches to see him. He appeared not to see them. As silently as the crowd came it wended its way back into the station and Sulzer was on his way to New York to attempt to regain his lost political prestige.

What wil be the outcome of Sulzer's race for the Legislature was foremost in the minds of politicians about the Capitol today.

It was generally agreed that he will make a great deal of trouble for the organization in New York. His fire will be directed especially against Aaron J. Levy, who is a candidate for municipal judge, and Alfred B. Smith, speaker of the Assembly, who seeks to succeed himself.

Sulzer intends to invade their districts and attempt to square accounts with them for the active part they took in his impeachment.

Election Conceded.

Even Sulzer's worst political foes practically conceded him victory in his own assembly district.

The question which caused greatest

Charge Attempt At Blackmailing

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 21.—Detectives in Atlanta and Birmingham today were working to uncover what they claim will prove to be a sensational attempt at blackmail in connection with the Phagan murder case.

The arrest late yesterday of Ira W. Fisher, on a charge of criminal libel, is expected, according to the police, to be followed by others.

Fisher's statement to the chief of police in Birmingham that he could prove another man and not Leo M. Frank killed Mary Phagan, revived interest in the unusual case. Attorneys for Frank, who has been sentenced to hang for the murder, had Fisher brought to Atlanta. That they discredited his story was indicated late yesterday when they turned Fisher over to local detectives.

Fisher was confronted by the man he has accused of the crime but refused to alter his story. His arrest followed.

Up to a late hour tonight no additional arrests had been made, although detectives still continued their investigation. Fisher was still held without bail.

Exchange Affidavits.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 21.—Attorneys for Leo M. Frank and the solicitor general today completed an exchange of affidavits, preparatory to argument on a motion asking a new trial for the man convicted of the murder of Mary Phagan. Affidavits of defense allege, among other errors, that two jurors were prejudiced. The solicitor general's affidavit seeks to impeach affidavits offered by the defense. Argument on the motion is set for tomorrow.

Marysv... Oct. 21.—One man was burned to death, five persons were seriously injured, and more than a score had thrilling escapes in a fire which today destroyed the Continental hotel. Alexander J. Manuel, of Kenton, O., trapped in a room on the third floor, perished.

WEALTHY CHICAGO MAN WAS HER LOVER

TRIED TO TRAIL HUSBAND

Used Assumed Name at Orphanage When She Went to See About Child—Claimed She Was Its Grandmother.

Plymouth, Mass., Oct. 21.—A reference to a "wealthy lover in Chicago" who wanted Mrs. Jennie May Eaton to leave her husband was introduced today by the prosecution as showing a possible motive in the trial of Mrs. Eaton, charged with the murder of her husband, Rear Admiral Joseph G. Eaton.

The evidence was given in the testimony of Mrs. Marshall Burzey, of Washington, D. C., who said that eight months before the Admiral's death, Mrs. Eaton told her of the Chicago man and his proposal.

According to Mrs. Burzey Mrs. Eaton did not disclose to her the name of the alleged lover, but said that he owned much property and had promised to leave it all to her.

Mrs. Eaton told the witness that Admiral Eaton had attacked her several times at night and at one time she awoke to find him injecting medicine into her arm.

Mrs. Eaton also said, according to Mrs. Burzey that she was going to have the Admiral examined by an expert and if he was found to be insane, have him put away. During her stay in Washington, said the witness, Mrs. Eaton received much mail postmarked Chicago.

Wanted Records Destroyed.

Mrs. Sarah R. Docher, a clerk in the Bureau of Children, and Guardians in Washington, said that while calling the attention of the district court to the case of a child who was not receiving proper attention at an orphanage, Mrs. Eaton asked her to destroy all of the records in the case, saying that her name was Owens and that she was the grandmother of the child. Later Mrs. Eaton gave several other names and finally admitted she was the wife of a naval officer. The case was finally settled and Mrs. Eaton took the child.

How Mrs. Eaton tried to trail her husband's footsteps by scattering talcum powder on the attic stairs, was described at the morning session by Frank S. Booth, a Rockland optician.

Mrs. Eaton told me that her husband had tried to poison her," testified Booth. "She said she thought he had hidden poison in the attic and that she had searched for it, but could not find any. Then she told me she scattered talcum powder on the steps leading to the attic in the hope of tracing his footprints. Her trap failed."

When court adjourned for the night many of the women auditors left in automobiles, scores of which surrounded the building all day.

District Attorney Barker said the State probably will rest its case tomorrow after five more witnesses have been examined. The defense expects to occupy three or four days.

Strange Compound.

Conditions in the Eaton household were described by neighbors at the trial today. Mrs. William Magoun told of a strange compound which Mrs. Eaton said the Admiral had mixed for June, her daughter by a former marriage. The mixture, according to the witness, contained soap, vinegar and either pepper or salt. Mrs. Magoun said she never saw any evidence of insanity in the Admiral.

Mrs. Abbie C. Cottrell, who kept house for the Eatons for a time when Mrs. Eaton was not living with her husband, testified that she had never seen any signs that the Admiral was of unsound mind.

Samuel W. Baker, a Rock Island optisian, said Mrs. Eaton asked him to assist her in having the Admiral committed to an insane asylum. She complained that her husband was dabbling in poisons and drugs.

ENTOMBED FOUND ALIVE.

Cave-in in Texas Catches Nine Miners Beneath Ground.

Rockdale, Texas, Oct. 21.—Seven miners entombed since last Thursday in the Vogel & Lawrence Lignite workings here, were found alive tonight when rescuers gained the mine interior by drilling a 90-foot shaft.

The men (Mexicans) were imprisoned by a cave-in following a cloudburst which flooded the mine.

Two other men in another part of the mine are believed to be dead. Fifty miners, all Mexicans, were in the workings at the time a nearby creek overflawed, flooding the mine, but the others made their escape before a cave-in blocked the tunnel.

The rescued men were unconscious and barely alive when found, but physicians expressed hopes for their recovery. They had retreated, before the advancing waters, reaching the highest point of the workings. Knowing that this was their only hope of life, rescuers determined this point by a survey of the mine exterior and the shaft, through which the men were reached, entered the tunnel a short distance from where they collapsed after more than five days' imprisonment. Air was let into the mine Monday. Lying near the men was their mule, still alive.

Washington, Oct. 21.—Credentials of Representative Henry D. Clayton as United States Senatorial appointee from Alabama, were withdrawn from the Senate today by Senator Bankhead. Representative Clayton resigned the Senatorial commission, which had not yet been acted on by the Senate.

British Suffragette of Fame

Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, who was detained at the Ellis Island Immigration station and finally ordered deported by the board of inquiry. The order was canceled, however, at the request of President Wilson.

PHILIPPINES ARE GRATEFUL

In Letter to President Wilson, the Philippino Assembly Stated They Had All Confidence in America's Plans.

Washington, Oct. 21.—The answer of the Philippines to President Wilson's message delivered through Governor General Harrison came by cable today in the form of a resolution adopted by the Philippine Assembly.

Emphatic belief in the right of the Filipinos to be free is expressed in the resolution and the President's words are gratefully accepted as "a categorical declaration of the purpose of the nation to recognize the independence of the islands."

The text of the resolution made public by the War Department follows:

"We, the representatives of the Filipino people constituting the Philippine Assembly, solemnly declare that it is evident to us that the Filipino people have the right to be free and independent so that in advancing alone along the road of progress it will on its own responsibility work out its prosperity and manage its own destinies for all the purposes of life. This was the aspiration of the people when it took up arms against Spain and the presence of the American flag first on Manila Bay and then in the interior of the Archipelago, did not modify but rather encouraged and strengthened the aspiration despite all the reverses suffered in war and difficulties encountered in peace.

"Being called to the ballot box the people again and again ratified this aspiration and since the inauguration of the Philippine Assembly the National representative body has been acting in accordance with the popular will; thus in the midst of the most adverse circumstances, the ideal of the people never wavered and was respectfully and frankly brought before the powers of the sovereign country on every propitious occasion. On the other hand, our faith in the justice of the American people was as great and persistent as our ideal. We have waited in patience, confident that sooner or later all errors and injustices would be redressed.

"The message of the President of the United States to the Filipino people is eloquent proof that we have not waited in vain. We accept said message with love and gratitude and consider it a categorical declaration of the purpose of the nation to recog-

INVITATION IS ACCEPTED

Great Britain Will Send Squadron to Join International Fleet at Hampton Roads in 1915 to Pass Through Canal.

London, Oct. 21.—Great Britain today accepted the invitation to send representative vessels of the British navy to the gathering of the international fleet in Hampton Roads in 1915. The fleet will celebrate the completion of the Panama canal by a voyage to the Pacific.

Oregon Will Lead.

Washington, Oct. 21.—Secretary Daniels formally announced today that the historic battleship Oregon which made the famous trip around Cape Horn in the early days of the Spanish war, will lead the great international fleet through the Panama canal when the waterway is opened in 1915.

While plans for the event have not yet been formulated, Secretary Daniels will be aboard, and in all probability President Wilson also, it has been suggested, that all surviving officers who were on the Oregon during the 1898 cruise be again at their posts of duty when the battleship heads the procession through the canal. In this event the Oregon will be commanded by Rear Admiral Charles E. Clark, now living in Washington.

The acceptance by the British foreign office of the invitation from the United States to send a squadron of warships to go through the canal with the international fleet was conveyed today to Secretary Bryan through Ambassador Page. Great Britain is the first nation to accept the invitation to participate in a mobilization which will bring together at Hampton Roads the greatest fleet ever assembled in American waters.

"Two Keels to One."

London, Oct. 21.—The American ambassador, Walter H. Page, and the Japanese ambassador were the guests of honor at the navy league banquet tonight. The Earl of Selborne, in toasting the memory of Nelson, urged the necessity of Great Britain maintaining "the two keels to one" standard and expressed his disbelief in the possibility of any naval holiday.

Ambassador Page quoted Nelson's message after the battle of the Nile to the effect that he had the pleasure of commanding a band of brothers.

"In this spirit", said the ambassador, "the United States decided the fleets would gather at Hampton Roads for the mighty and impressive naval demonstration of the history of the

WILL CO-OPERATE TO FIGHT DIVORCE

Episcopal Church Votes To Help Arrange International Congress to Plan Fight.

MEET AT PANAMA EXPOSITION

Steps Will be Taken to Further Religious Teachings in Public Schools Change Reading of Prayer Book.

New York, Oct. 21.—The divorce question came up in the general convention of the Protestant Episcopal church today, the House of Deputies by resolution deciding to co-operate with the "international committee on marriage and divorce" in arranging for an international congress to deal with the subject.

The Congress is to be held in May, 1915, at the Panama Exposition in San Francisco.

The deputies today concurred in the selection of the five missionary bishops chosen by the House of Bishops yesterday. The new prelates are Bishops Hugh Burleson, of North Dakota; W. B. Capers of Spokane; Milo H. Gates, of Cuba; F. C. Howden, of New Mexico, and Charles Blaney Colmore, of Porto Rico.

A resolution introduced several days ago by Rev. Dr. Freeman, deputy from Minnesota, intended to further religious training in the public schools, was adopted by the House of Deputies.

The resolution instructs the general board of religious education to "effect if possible through co-operation with other religious bodies a system of instruction commensurate with the needs of our youth," together with forms and exercises calculated to promote patriotism and the "highest sense of personal integrity and purity of life." The general board is instructed "to take prompt action to promote the daily reading of a portion of the Holy Scriptures in all public schools." Both this resolution and that on marriage and divorce must be concurred in by the House of Bishops before becoming effective.

The committee on the prayer book today reported favorably on the proposal that the phrase "all Jews, Turks and Heretics and Infidels" be made to read "all those who know Thee not through the gospel of Thy Son." The House of Deputies voted favorably on this change.

Debate Negro Question.

A heated debate over the negro question enlivened deliberations of the House of Deputies today. A majority report by the committee on racial Episcopate, with recommendations against the proposal to establish separate churches, dioceses, clergy and bishops for Southern negroes, was presented. A minority report advocating separation of the races and appointment of negro bishops to sit in the House of Bishops with powers equal to the whites, also was presented.

Amid a storm of discussion the house made consideration of both reports the order of business for the afternoon session tomorrow, limiting debate on each side to half an hour.

"The proposal is a radical violation of the principles and customs of diocesan union," asserts the majority report read by Dr. C. B. Bryan, of North Carolina. With the utmost friendship for our negro brethren and with the desire to advance the work of the church among them, we still cannot believe that as a race they are prepared for an independent ecclesiastical administration."

To this declaration the minority, consisting of Bishop Kilsonving, of Texas; Bishop Chesshire, of North Carolina, and Rev. Dr. J. McK. Pittinger, of Raleigh, N. C., took sharp exceptions.

"The white people and the negro people of the South," said the minority report, "cannot be dealt with by the Church without a sharp and positive separation and distinction between the two in worship, and in all corporate, ecclesiastical activities as well as in social life. We feel that something should be done to give the colored members in the South a status and an opportunity which, in our judgment they do not and cannot enjoy under our present methods and organizations."

It was announced tonight that the House of Bishops had voted adversely upon the proposal to give a vote in the House of Bishops to the Suffragan bishops. The only other action announced was the defeat of the proposed amendment to the constitution making it necessary for the standing committees of all the diocese to consent to the election of a Suffragan bishop.

BLIZZARD AT CHICAGO.

City in Embrace of Snow and Ice All Day Yesterday.

Chicago, Oct. 21.—Chicago awoke this morning to witness the first heavy snow storm of the season, which at times was almost a blizzard. Light snow began falling last evening, and continued all through the night. Early this morning the mercury dropped below the freezing point.

Blinded by the snow, Charles Blake, 40 years old, a switchman, was run down by a freight train and instantly killed.

Traffic on the surface and elevated roads was delayed by the blizzard and half a dozen persons were reported injured in accidents caused by the snow and ice.

Washington, Oct. 21.—Freight rates on vegetables in mixed carloads and potatoes in hampers, exacted by the Florida East Coast Railway from Florida points to Chicago, were today held by the Inter-State Commerce Commission to be unreasonable and excessive. The rates must be re-adjusted.

MRS. PANKHURST TALKS.

About One-fourth of Crowd Expected Turn Out to Hear Her.

New York, Oct. 21.—Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst addressed tonight in Madison Square Garden her first American mass meeting.

She explained why militant methods for the cause of woman suffrage are followed in England, but not in America, and defended the employment of such methods. She criticised the British government as the most conservative on earth and held it responsible through failure to enact legislation desired by women for advocates of suffrage resorting to violence to obtain the ballot.

Only through dynamic means, she declared, could English women hope to secure laws dealing with white slavery, industrial evils and other conditions affecting women.

Preparations had been made for an overflow meeting at Madison Square Garden, but the big hall with a seating capacity of about 12,000 persons was scarcely one-quarter filled. This was attributed by the suffragettes to the uncertainty that existed almost until the eleventh hour as to whether the immigration authorities would allow Mrs. Pankhurst to land.

Some leading suffragettes of this country and a few "hunger strikers" from England sat with Mrs. Pankhurst on a stage draped with a tri-colored flag bearing the inscription "resistance to tyranny is obedience to God."

New York, Oct. 21.—Hundreds of congratulatory telegrams poured in today upon Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the militant British suffragist, admitted to this country at the instance of President Wilson after her brief detention at Ellis Island. She spent the day resting at the home of Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont.

"I congratulate the American people who have officials in high places who perform their duties as they see them.

"Women tried persuasion and argument in England, peaceful means that have been effective here," Mrs. Pankhurst said. "These failing violence became necessary.

"Nothing was ever gotten from an English Parliament except through violence," she said. "The machinery of the British government is an elaborate arangement of how not to do anything. Whatever social legislation has been secured has been due to 'women's civil war' and much of it was granted to soften the spirit of the suffragettes."

The old age pension law, she declared, was granted to save Winston Churchill his cabinet seat. Mention of Churchill, Asquith and Lloyd-George evoked hissing.

By nature law abiding, hating violence and disorder, Mrs. Pankhurst said, she had from the beginning felt absolutely guiltless, for she believed there was no other way to secure women's rights.

"The women who have drawn the prizes in life's lucky bag are the ones who are waging this war," she said. "The women with good fathers, good husbands, good brothers, and who are engaged in useful industries. They are fighting for the women of all classes."

Mrs. Pankhurst discussed equal suffrage and white slavery. White slavery she characterized as "more awful than negro slavery in its worst form ever was in the United States. In this slavery are slaves of every color, and they are all of one sex." She criticised England's flogging act providing punishment for white slave agents.

"Why don't they go to the seat of the evil?" she asked. "Why don't they punish the customer? With no demand there will be no traffic. Give the women the opportunity to frame the legislation and there will be no white slavery. The government of the country is the biggest white slave firm we have."

Mrs. Pankhurst criticised Americans who have said she came on a money-making mission. Benjamin Franklin went to France for aid for the American revolution," she reminded her audience, "and Irish law breakers came here to gather money to carry on their campaigns and Americans responded.' She continued: "Why should I not come to ask help. What helps women in England will help women al over the world."

Baltimore, Oct. 21.—The militant methods of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst were criticised by Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, president of the National Woman's Suffragist Association, in an address before the Just Government League here this afternoon. Dr. Shaw made it clear, however, that her disapproval rested chiefly on grounds of expediency.

"If I thought I could get the ballot for the women of this country by going out and smashing mail boxes I would do it," said Dr. Shaw. "If a government does not stand for what is good and just, it should be overthrown by any means. But whenever women attempt to use physical force they are at a disadvantage."

Wearing small steel prison bar badges signifying that their militancy had resulted in jail terms, were Miss Elsie McKinzie and Miss Mary Keegan, English girls who came here to accept business opportunities, and Miss Lucy Burns and Miss Elizabeth Freeman, American girls, who went to England to fight for "the cause."

Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont and Misses Lavinia Dock, Sybyl Wilbur, Alberta Hill, Fola LaFollette, Ida Craft and other American suffragist leaders sat with them.

Mrs. Pankhurst was introduced by Charles Edward Russell, Socialist candidate for mayor. The audience, the majority women, made a demonstration lasting two minutes, when the English military leader tried to speak. Women stood on chairs and frantically waved handkerchiefs and yellow flags. Mrs. Pankhurst closed her eyes and waited for the enthusiasm to die away.

Her experiences with the immigration authorities, Mrs. Pankhurst spoke of with praise, declaring the work at Ellis Island admirably done and the immigrants cared for there far better than are the poor, alien and natives in Great Britain.

"I have been accustomed to pleading my own case in England," she said. "I wanted to go to Washington and plead my own case there. I want to thank those who pleaded for me there, and thank the American public. I do not thank the Washington authorities and I do not think President Wilson wants to be thanked. He would say 'I did my duty'."

APPOINT NEW CHIEF.

New Bureau Installed and Col. Reeber at Its Head.

Washington, Oct. 21.—Col. Samuel Reeber, who has been chief signal officer of the Eastern Department of the army, today assumed the duties of chief of the new bureau of aviation in the War Department.

Heretofore the direction of all matter connected with aviation and aeronautics has been in the hands of Chief Signal Officer Gen. Scriven, but because of the growing importance of aviation, as a military adjunct, Secretary Garrison and Gen. Scriven decided to assign an officer of the rank of colonel to duty in charge of that branch of the service.

51g RESERVE BANKS ENOUGH.

Witnesses Champion the Measure and Urge Changes.

Washington, Oct. 21.—Two witnesses discussed the administration bill before the Senate Banking committee today. Victor Morawetz, of New York, who championed the measure completed his testimony, and Alexander Gilbert, president of Fulton Market Bank of New York, took the stand.

Both generally endorsed the bill, but suggested a number of changes in the detailed provisions. Both urged the reduction of the number of Federal reserve banks fixed by the bill at 12.

Mr. Gilbert presented a table showing the resources available for the organization of six regional banks, to be located in New England, the Eastern States, the South, the Mississippi Valley, Central West and the Pacific coast. He urged that the bill be amended to allow the banks representation on the Federal reserve board. To avoid stringency, which he said would follow shifting of bank capital and deposits to the Federal reserve banks, he proposed that this shifting be done gradually, in small installments.

Mr. Morawetz objected to the provision giving the Federal reserve board power to force any regional bank to re-discount paper for any other regional reserve bank. He said that this provision would lead to sectional political demands for rediscount.

Questioned by Senator Nelson, Mr. Morawetz said that the bill provided for a "central bank, shorn of many of its advantages."

"It would scatter the reserves of the country in various banks," he said, "but would leave the system under the domination of a central board appointed by the President.

BOSTON LOSES RATE FIGHT.

Waged War on Differential in New York's Favor for Years.

Washington, Oct. 20.—The Inter-State Commerce Commission today ordered that for two years the railroad rates on imports westbound from New York and Boston shall be the same. So ends the celebrated import rate case in which the cities fought for advantages.

The decision is a severe blow to the hopes of Boston, which for several years has been trying to eliminate the differential in favor of Baltimore.

Prior to January 1, 1910, the rates on first-class freight to Chicago stood: From Boston 70 cent; from New York 75 cents, and from Baltimore 67 cents. Striving to overcome this differential, Boston interests appealed to the railroads serving their city, and the roads agreed to cut the freight rate to 67 cents a hundred, the same as the Baltimore rate.

This precipitated the famous rate war, waged with such ferocity that finally the railroads and commercial bodies in the teritory affected apealed to the Inter-State Commerce Commission for arbitration. At the height of this war Baltimore's rate was 52 cents. Pending arbitration, the commission re-established the previous differentials, afterwards handing down its decision which advanced the Boston rate to 75 cents, on a par with New York, and fixed the Philadelphia rate at 69 cents, while the Baltimore rate was left at 67 cents.

The Bostonians made an appeal to the commission, the only result being the reaffirming of the previous ruling in the decision handed down last June. A second appeal from Boston has produced a similar result, embodied in the commission's order to today.

HAS SOUTHERN PENSION PLAN.

General Young Wants $60,000,000 War Cotton Tax Used.

Washington, Oct. 20.—Members of Congress received today letters from General Bennett H. Young, commander-in-chief of the United Confederate Veterans, proposing a plan whereby the $60,000,000 collected by the Federal government as a direct tax upon cotton immediately following the Civil War can be disposed of. This tax the Supreme Court has declared illegal and the fund is now in the treasury.

General Young asks members of the House and Senate to apportion the fund among the several Southern States for pensioning Southern survivors of the war and the widows of the Confederate dead. He thinks this would be an equitable and generous way of returning to the people of the South money unlawfully taken from them by the government.

The sum is the result of a levy upon individual cotton growers of the South and was regarded at the time as a punishment as well as a means of forcing the South to pay a share of the cost of the war. Though the Supreme Court held the tax unconstitutional it was not discontinued until $60,000,000 had accumulated in the treasury.

Most of the original receipts given the cotton owners from their product have been lost or destroyed; therefore it is impossible to return the money direct to its owners.

BUSH GIVEN OVATION.

Home Town Turns Out to Welcome Youthful Hero.

Brainerd, Minn., Oct. 21.—Several thousand baseball enthusiasts greeted Leslie Bush, of the Philadelphia Athletics, upon his arrival here today. As he stepped from the train Bush was seized and tossed aloft by his friends. Every whistle in town screamed a welcome, and several factories and business houses closed to permit employees to attend the celebration, which included an automobile parade.

The home-coming festivities were concluded with a dance tonight.

PETITION OVERRULED.

Plea for Writ of Habeas Corpus Denied Impersonator.

Washington, Oct. 21.—David Lamar's application for a writ of habeas corpus to prevent his return to the Federal authorities in New York to answer an indictment for impersonating Congressmen in telephone talks with Wall Street financiers, was dismissed today by Chief Justice Clabaugh of the District Supreme Court. The justice held that a Congressman was an officer of the United States within the purview of the statutes forbidding impersonation. Lamar will appeal and furnish bond.

ROOSEVELT IN BRAZIL.

Received With Military Honors as He Stepped Ashore.

Rio Janeiro, Oct. 21.—Theodore Roosevelt was received with military honors as he stepped ashore from his steamer here today.

Edwin V. Morgan, United States ambassador to Brazil, with the staff of the embassy, went on board before the vessel docked with a reception committee headed by Senor Moreira, representing the ministry of foreign affairs; Lieut. Col. Achilles de Pederneiras, Brazilian attache at Washington; Don Jose Carlos Rodriguez, Admiral Antonio Couticho Gomes Peroira and Antonio Olyntho de Magalhaes, of the historical institute.

The party disembarked on the naval arsenal quay where a company of soldiers saluted while bands played the Brazilian and American National anthems.

A procession headed by Col. Roosevelt and the representative of the President of Brazil, proceeded to a reception room in the naval arsenal which was decolater with Brazilian flags and the Stars and Stripes intertwined. Here Col. Roosevelt was introduced to the leading officials.

Col. Roosevelt was then conducted to the Guananara Palace where he will reside during his sojourn.

The American ex-President paid his respects to the President of Brazil in a lengthy visit. The meeting was most cordial. He then called on Dr. Lauro Muller, minister of foreign affairs.

The official programme for the entertainment of the nation's guest is likely to keep Col. Roosevelt busy during his stay here. Tomorrow he will be the President's guest at a breakfast. Later he will visit the military college and speak before the Young Men's Christian Association. In the evening he will attend a performance at the municipal theatre.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday will be spent in a similar manner, Col. Roosevelt attending dinners in his honor, making sight-seeing excursions, and addressing local organizations. On Sunday the party will leave for Sao Paulo.

Peoria, Ill., Oct. 21.—Tying the score in the sixth inning with a sacrifice fly by Sam Crawford, the Chicago White Sox meted out a victory over the New York Giants here today in the 8th inning by bunching a double, triple and three singles for three runs, which gave the American Leaguers the game 6 to 4.

WHY PENNANT LOST.

Charleston, W. Va., Bemourns Failure to Comply With Law.

Huntington, W. Va., Oct. 21.—Failure to comply with the laws of baseball cost the Charleston, W. Va., team the championship of the Ohio State League for 1913.

The league directors here today refused to allow the Charleston team two seven-inning games won from Maysville, Ky., September 21st. With the games thrown out the team dropped three points under that of the Chillicothe, Ohio, team to which the directors awarded the pennant.

President R. R. Pennywitt, of the Charleston club, announced he would appeal the case.

MORE PEANUT POLITICS.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, D. C., Oct. 21.—Three candidates are already in the race for the postmastership at Monroe. The fight promises to be a warm one and incidents of the Senatorial campaign of last year are likely to figure in the appointment. George Beasley, E. C. Winchester and James McNeely are the candidates who have been heard from so far. Beasley will probably have no chance of winning because of the attitude of the Carolina Democrat which was published at Monroe last year, and which made vicious attacks upon Senator Simmons. It is declared that this publication was more bitter against Senator Simmons than any other paper in the State.

Representative Page called at the Postoffice Department today and talked the matter over with Postmaster General Burleson. It is not believed that he will recommend Beasley, because it is generally understood that Beasley would be anything but acceptable to the senior Senator.

Jack Hagarty, the well known coach for A. & M. College at Raleigh wrote a friend here today that he is certain to defeat Georgetown University when his team meets the Blue and Gray warriors on the gridiron at Raleigh Thursday. A. & M. promises to be a contender in the South Atlantic championship this season.

PRIZE FIGHTERS IN TROUBLE.

Eleven Promoters, Fighters and Fans Face Trial.

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 21.—Jess Willard, heavyweight prize fighter, and ten others of the twelve concerned in the bout in which John W. Young was fatally injured at Vernon arena, August 22nd, must stand trial for alleged violation of the State law prohibiting prize fighting.

Judge Gavin Craig, of the Superior Court today overruled the demurrer the defendants had entered to the complaint against them and denied their motion to set aside the information.

W. J. Ford, assistant district attorney, then asked that the information against Eddie Webster, a second at the fight, be dismissed. When the judge had discharged Webster, he called upon Willard and the ten others including T. J. McCarey and Al Greenwald, promoters, and Charles F. Tyton, referee, to plead. Each man answered "not guilty." Their trials were set for January 7th, 1914.

In overruling the demurrer, Judge Craig gave this definition of a sparring match:

"A sparring is one in which two persons attempt, through skill and science to strike each other and to avoid being struck but in which there is no attempt to inflict serious injury and in which the incentive to win is not through a 'knockout' but through skill in boxing."

Washington, Oct. 21.—The Supreme Council of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, in executive session today elected George F. Moore sovereign grand inspector general in the State of Alabama, and editor of the official organ of the council, lieutenant grand commander in place of Samuel E. Adams, who died March 29th, 1912.

ACTIVITIES AT SOUTHPORT

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Southport, N. C., Oct. 21.—While the coaling station is not exactly an established institution for Southport as yet, still there is a coal dock and coal upon it here, and the fish boat Martin J. Marran coaled up at the dock today.

Work continues at the Cape Fear Laundry & Manufacturing Co.'s plant, the smokestack is in position and boiler under roof, and the concrete foundation for the engine is being placed. Lumber for the completion of the building is on the way.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Bank of Brunswick was held last night at which the following board of directors was elected for the ensuing year: W. H. Pyke, J. Berg, M. C. Guthrie, J. B. Ruark, Richard Dosher, Dr. J. A. Dosher, John Jenrette Richmond Galloway, Price Furpless, Wm. St. George, Lindsay Walker. The reports of president and officers were made, and considering the general quietude in all business, proved satisfactory. The directors elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, W. H. Pyke; vice president, P. Furpless; cashier, J. R. Branch; attorney, C. Ed Taylor.

The Carolina Coast Products Company, after weeks of hard work, is in a way to reap real financial benefits, as the result. Monday the plant was ready to do work and there was the steamer Marran lying at the dock with the first load of fish and a big one, to be unloaded. It is true the Marran had been waiting from Saturday, but this only served to stimulate work of getting elevator and conveyors ready to unload. The outlook is for a big catch of fish, which means profit for Capt. Bussells and those engaged with him in this enterprise.

There has been a genuine freshet in the Cape Fear for more than a week and such condition changes the fishing conditions to marked degree, bringing down fish that are rarely to be seen or caught in the waters in this vicinity. As an instance, a rock was hooked by an eager angler, who was seated on Miss Kate Stuart's dock.

The blow of Monday, which called for a northwest storm warning, was the severest in years. There was no damage to shipping here, but there was a gale of wind, far stronger than the one of a few weeks ago, which called for a hurricane display of flags.

Last Thursday Capt. L. D. Potter, with a force of men went to the schooner Greenleaf Johnson, lying ashore on the bar at Shallotte Inlet, and threw overboard the deck load of lumber, hoping that this would lighten the vessel so that the tugs could pull her off on high water. It helped and on trial the schooner was loosened to some extent, and it was expected she would come off on the high water of Sunday. Two tugs and the cutter Seminole made the effort, and after getting the schooner started about nine feet, she went solid aground and could not be started again, and the effort was abandoned. With a strong blow of Monday, it is thought the vessel will go to pieces, as wind and sea conditions favored such a result.

The tug Columbia, of Savannah, bound for that port, was here for a harbor on Monday, leaving this morning.

The four masted schooner, Dorothy Bell, which came into this harbor a week ago, leaking, is now prepared to go North, and will leave in tow as soon as the tug, now on the way from New York, reaches here.

Superintendent of County School M. C. Guthrie is sending a bulletin to each school, naming Thursday, November 6th, as Good Roads Day, and suggesting suitable observance of same. The suggestion is for each school to hold appropriate indoor exercises in the morning, and in the afternoon to have physical demonstration by cleaning up the school grounds or the improvement of the school building.

Mr. S. K. Robertson, assistant in Boys' Club work, of the Farmers' Demonstration work. West Raleigh, has agreed to meet Supt. Guthrie early next month and go with him on a visit in the county to meet the Boys' Corn Clubs of Brunswick county, and see what progress has been made and to offer any aid that may be needed to further this good agricultural endeavor, of more bushels of corn to the acre every year.

Last Thursday afternoon at her home at Fort Caswell, Mrs. Springer charmingly entertained at tea, complimentary to Mrs. Butler, of Edgefield, S. C., who is here on a visit with her daughter, Mrs. James W. Thompson. The color design was pink and white, which was prettily carried out in decorations and menu.

Miss Kate Stuart sailed last Saturday on the Clyde steamship Cherokee and will enjoy a two weeks visit in New York.

BARON C. TAYLOR DEAD.

Tarboro, N. C., Oct. 21.—Baron C. Taylor, widely known in railroad circles, died here Monday night, aged 61 years. He had been ill since the first of the month, when he suffered a stroke of paralysis.

At one time Mr. Taylor was general foreman of the blacksmith department of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad, with headquarters at Rocky Mount. About 15 years ago he moved to Tarboro, and for a time was in the employ of the East Carolina Railway. He was a native of Wilson county.

Surviving are his wife, three daughters, Mrs. A. L. Dozier and Mrs. W. G. Horne, of Rocky Mount, and Mrs. J. L. Bright, of Tarboro, and one son, Thomas A. Taylor, of Rocky Mount. Four brothers survive: Messrs. B. F. Taylor, of Oxford; H. C. Taylor, of Louisburg; Rev. A. J. Taylor, of Waverly Hall, Ga., and John Taylor, of Wilson.

The funeral services were conducted this morning from the house by Rev. L. B. Jones, pastor of St. James' Methodist church. Interment was made in Rocky Mount.

Greensboro, N. C., Oct. 21.—After hearing the evidence against Fred Stanfield, charged with the murder of Will Hatchett Saturday night, Judge Brown in municipal court today held the defendant for the December grand jury. In default of bail Stanfield went to jail. There was evidence that Stanfield shot himself after killing Hatchett in order to corroborate his story of self defense.

GREAT CROWDS AT THE FAIR

Big Week Opens in Raleigh—Capital Case Argued—City and County Schools—House Breaking Charge—Other News.

(Special Star Correspondence.

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 21.—With weather rather cold but fair, and with crowds that probably exceeded any previous record for opening day, the 53rd annual State fair was opened today at noon by Governor Craig, who delivered a brief address in which he paid tribute to the great usefulness of the State fair, particularly in furthering the agricultural, good roads, and other varied interests of the State.

The procession of officers of the fair and distinguished guests, including the Governor and other State officers, started from lower Fayetteville street at 11:30 o'clock, reaching the fair grounds at noon for the opening ceremonies.

The management of the fair has never provided as numerous special features for the fair as for this year and an unusual feature will be the opening of the fair grounds at night when there will be the sensational presentation of the famous Payne fireworks presenting "The Destruction of Pompeii."

The appeal of Walter Shelton, under sentence in Rockingham county to die in the electric chair November 28th, for the murder of his wife, Lula Shelton, March 25th of this year, was heard by the Supreme Court today, Attorney Bickett appearing for the State and P. T. Stein and C. O. McMichael for the condemned man. Shelton had been separated from his wife for a little more than a year when he made good repeated threats to shoot her. The killing was at the home of Thomas Black, in Reidsville, Shelton having entered through the back door and gone into the sitting room where he fired on his wife twice without saying a word. She lived about half an hour. He had been importuning her to come back to him and she would not. They have one small child. There are exceptions to evidence and to the charge delivered to the jury by Judge Lane, who tried the case.

The question of whether or not a municipality maintaining a separate chartered system of graded schools has the right to share the county fund set aside by the county board of education for purposes of building and repairing school buildings was argued in the Supreme Court today by Manly, Hendren & Womble for the plaintiff and G. H. Hastings for the defendant. The case is Graded School Commissioners of Winston-Salem vs. the Forsyth County Board of education. The Winston-Salem commissioners desired to erect a new school building and made demand on the county board for a proportionate part of the county building fund on the ground that the city pays its part of the building fund and, in fact, more than half of all the school tax of Forsyth county. Judge Cooke ruled in favor of the Winston-Salem commissioners and the case comes up on appeal by the county board.

Charged with breaking into the residence of Montgomery Miller, a merchant of Old Town, Forsyth county, and sentenced to one year on the roads for this offense by Judge C. M. Cooke, the appeal of Walter Spear was heard in the Supreme Court today, the attorney general for the prosecution and Watson, Buxton & Watson for the defendant. The defense is that the prisoner did not commit the offense and that, even if he did, he was drinking and did not know what he was doing. Mrs. Miller testified that she believed him the man who entered her room. He put his hand on her throat and she smelled turpentine and it appeared that Spear had hurt his finger at the store that night and turpentine had been used. The jury recommended the prisoner to the mercy of the court. This accounts for the one-year sentence.

A commission was issued today to Chas. H. Hinson as second lieutenant, Troop A, Lincolnton.

Two charters were issued today for new corporations. The Eureka Milling Co., of Gibsonville, Guilford county, capital $5,000 by B. Davidson, B. F. Love and M. B. McLean for flour, corn and feed mill. The Machinery Supply Co., of Salisbury, capital $7,000 authorized and $2,500 subscribed by R. H. Morrison and M. A. Hodgin and others.

UNIVERSALISTS IN CHICAGO.

Kinston Delegates to Convention—Got to Judge Allen's Heart.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., Oct. 21.—Rev. W. O. Bodell, pastor of the Universalist church here, is on his way to Chicago with three other delegates from North Carolina to attend the general convention of the Universalists. Mr. Bodell will urge the National missionary association of the church to locate new ministers in this State, where now three clergymen are doing the work of six in serving 15 congregations. North Carolina is a part of the mission territory of the church.

It was a unique jury that sat in two dicorce cases at the court house in this city when on the last day of a term, it was hard to secure the 12 men necessary because all the veniremen had been dismissed. Four lawyers, the clerk, a fire engine driver, the court crier and others volunteered and were impanelled. The cases proceeded without protest by the plaintiffs or defendants, and the court was continued with due dignity. An incident shortly before convulsed the attorneys and others in attedance upon the court. A burly negro was convicted of an ugly offense, and Judge Allen was inclined to inquire further into his record before passing judgment. The situation was growing serious, and the defendant seemed to realize this. His Honor proceeded to remark upon the gravity of the case, and finally turned upon the prisoner at the bar and asked: "Have you any excuse or explanation for your conduct?" "Sho, I have, Mr. Jedge." was the confident reply. Judge Allen is a native of Duplin county, and his affection and attachment for his old home is well known here. "Well," he said, "I'd like to hear it right now." The expectant audience gasped with surprise when the black with perfect composure unhesitatingly answered: "Why, Jedge, I'm from Duplin county." The excuse didn't save him from the deserved penalty.

The board of trustees of the Kinston city schools have taken another decided step forward by the employment of one of the best equipped teachers in the whole country to supervise the music in the primary grades. Miss Muffly, of the East Carolina Teachers' Training School at Greenville, a native of Baltimore, who has studied under the foremost masters of Europe and America, will give the pupils the benefit of the best instruction obtainable.

COLD WAVE AT BURGAW.

Cotton Receipts Small—Good Roads Days—Depot Facilities.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Burgaw, N. C., Oct. 21.—The cold wave struck Burgaw Monday accompanied by a high wind, but the frost this morning was light. The fire bell sounded an alarm Monday afternoon, but it proved nothing more than the burning out of a chimney at the residence of Mr. T. P. Raney.

County Commissioner T. J. Armstrong was here today in connection with receiving the tax books and turning them over to the sheriff.

The quantity of cotton brought to this market this season is very small compared to previous seasons. As the season advances, it becomes more and more apparent that the crop in this section is going to be very short. There is a good weed but the cotton isn't there. It was too wet for cotton.

Quite a number of Burgaw people will attend the State Fair this week, some going by automobile.

If the Governor can don his overalls and go out and throw dirt on the roads November 5th and 6th, as he proposes to do, it looks like the average ordinary citizen might do likewise. Just why any body should oppose this movement it is hard to see. If all the men in Burgaw will get out on those days and work, they can put several miles of road in good shape.

Mr. O. P. Middleton, of Warsaw, cotton buyer for Messrs. Sprunt & Son, was here today buying cotton. He came here from Rocky Point where he bought cotton also.

Mrs. Jackson Johnson, of Brunswick county, is to address the Ladies' Missionary Society here Wednesday evening at the Presbyterian church. All the ladies of the town are cordially invited.

Rev. Mr. Harrington, a student at Wake Forest, preached in the Baptist church here morning and evening last Sunday. He preached able sermons and the Baptists were fortunate in securing him, as they are at present without a pastor.

Some of the people in Pender are so bitterly opposed to the stock law, they are talking of applying to the Governor to restrain the law; just how this could be done is difficult to say, as the Governor has not even the veto power, and certainly he possesses no authority to set a law aside. The quicker they realize that the law is here and govern themselves accordingly, the better it will be for all.

If the A. C. L. does not take the initiative in furnishing more adequate warehouse and office facilities here, it is not at all unlikely that the Corporation Commission will be asked to take a hand in it. The present warehouse is altogether unfit for the business here and, as to the office and waiting room for passengers, they would have served 30 years ago fairly well, but are not now in keeping with the times and the needs of the traveling public. The receipts for freight and passengers here justify better accommodations.

Washington, Oct. 21.—George Fred Williams, of Boston, has been selected by President Wilson for minister to Greece. The post was offered to Prof. Garrett Droppers, of Williams College, who declined that he might continue his educational work.

MRS. PANKHURST TALKS.

About One-fourth of Crowd Expected Turn Out to Hear Her.

She explained why militant methods for the cause of woman suffrage are followed in England, but not in America, and defended the employment of such methods. She criticised the British government as the most conservative on earth and held it responsible through failure to enact legislation desired by women for advocates of suffrage resorting to violence to obtain the ballot.

Only through dynamic means, she declared, could English women hope to secure laws dealing with white slavery, industrial evils and other conditions affecting women.

Preparations had been made for an overflow meeting at Madison Square Garden, but the big hall with a seating capacity of about 12,000 persons was scarcely one-quarter filled. This was attributed by the suffragettes to the uncertainty that existed almost until the eleventh hour as to whether the immigration authorities would allow Mrs. Pankhurst to land.

Some leading suffragettes of this country and a few "hunger strikers" from England sat with Mrs. Pankhurst on a stage draped with a tri-colored flag bearing the inscription "resistance to tyranny is obedience to God."

New York, Oct. 21.—Hundreds of congratulatory telegrams poured in today upon Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the militant British suffragist, admitted to this country at the instance of President Wilson after her brief detention at Ellis Island. She spent the day resting at the home of Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont.

"I congratulate the American people who have officials in high places who perform their duties as they see them.

"Women tried persuasion and argument in England, peaceful means that have been effective here," Mrs. Pankhurst said. "These failing violence became necessary.

"Nothing was ever gotten from an English Parliament except through violence," she said. "The machinery of the British government is an elaborate arangement of how not to do anything. Whatever social legislation has been secured has been due to 'women's civil war' and much of it was granted to soften the spirit of the suffragettes."

The old age pension law, she declared, was granted to save Winston Churchill his cabinet seat. Mention of Churchill, Asquith and Lloyd-George evoked hissing.

By nature law abiding, hating violence and disorder, Mrs. Pankhurst said, she had from the beginning felt absolutely guiltless, for she believed there was no other way to secure women's rights.

"The women who have drawn the prizes in life's lucky bag are the ones who are waging this war," she said. "The women with good fathers, good husbands, good brothers, and who are engaged in useful industries. They are fighting for the women of all classes."

Mrs. Pankhurst discussed equal suffrage and white slavery. White slavery she characterized as "more awful than negro slavery in its worst form ever was in the United States. In this slavery are slaves of every color, and they are all of one sex." She criticised England's flogging act providing punishment for white slave agents.

"Why don't they go to the seat of the evil?" she asked. "Why don't they punish the customer? With no demand there will be no traffic. Give the women the opportunity to frame the legislation and there will be no white slavery. The government of the country is the biggest white slave firm we have."

Mrs. Pankhurst criticised Americans who have said she came on a money-making mission. Benjamin Franklin went to France for aid for the American revolution," she reminded her audience, "and Irish law breakers came here to gather money to carry on their campaigns and Americans responded.' She continued: "Why should I not come to ask help. What helps women in England will help women al over the world."

Baltimore, Oct. 21.—The militant methods of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst were criticised by Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, president of the National Woman's Suffragist Association, in an address before the Just Government League here this afternoon. Dr. Shaw made it clear, however, that her disapproval rested chiefly on grounds of expediency.

"If I thought I could get the ballot for the women of this country by going out and smashing mail boxes I would do it," said Dr. Shaw. "If a government does not stand for what is good and just, it should be overthrown by any means. But whenever women attempt to use physical force they are at a disadvantage."

Wearing small steel prison bar badges signifying that their militancy had resulted in jail terms, were Miss Elsie McKinzie and Miss Mary Keegan, English girls who came here to accept business opportunities, and Miss Lucy Burns and Miss Elizabeth Freeman, American girls, who went to England to fight for "the cause."

Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont and Misses Lavinia Dock, Sybyl Wilbur, Alberta Hill, Fola LaFollette, Ida Craft and other American suffragist leaders sat with them.

Mrs. Pankhurst was introduced by Charles Edward Russell, Socialist candidate for mayor. The audience, the majority women, made a demonstration lasting two minutes, when the English military leader tried to speak. Women stood on chairs and frantically waved handkerchiefs and yellow flags. Mrs. Pankhurst closed her eyes and waited for the enthusiasm to die away.

Her experiences with the immigration authorities, Mrs. Pankhurst spoke of with praise, declaring the work at Ellis Island admirably done and the immigrants cared for there far better than are the poor, alien and natives in Great Britain.

"I have been accustomed to pleading my own case in England," she said. "I wanted to go to Washington and plead my own case there. I want to thank those who pleaded for me there, and thank the American public. I do not thank the Washington authorities and I do not think President Wilson wants to be thanked. He would say 'I did my duty'."

APPOINT NEW CHIEF.

Washington, Oct. 21.—Col. Samuel Reeber, who has been chief signal officer of the Eastern Department of the army, today assumed the duties of chief of the new bureau of aviation in the War Department.

Heretofore the direction of all matter connected with aviation and aeronautics has been in the hands of Chief Signal Officer Gen. Scriven, but because of the growing importance of aviation, as a military adjunct, Secretary Garrison and Gen. Scriven decided to assign an officer of the rank of colonel to duty in charge of that branch of the service.

$1g RESERVE BANKS ENOUGH.

Witnesses Champion the Measure and Urge Changes.

Washington, Oct. 21.—Two witnesses discussed the administration bill before the Senate Banking committee today. Victor Morawetz, of New York, who championed the measure completed his testimony, and Alexander Gilbert, president of Fulton Market Bank of New York, took the stand.

Both generally endorsed the bill, but suggested a number of changes in the detailed provisions. Both urged the reduction of the number of Federal reserve banks fixed by the bill at 12.

Mr. Gilbert presented a table showing the resources available for the organization of six regional banks, to be located in New England, the Eastern States, the South, the Mississippi Valley, Central West and the Pacific coast. He urged that the bill be amended to allow the banks representation on the Federal reserve board. To avoid stringency, which he said would follow shifting of bank capital and deposits to the Federal reserve banks, he proposed that this shifting be done gradually, in small installments.

Mr. Morawetz objected to the provision giving the Federal reserve board power to force any regional bank to re-discount paper for any other regional reserve bank. He said that this provision would lead to sectional political demands for rediscount.

Questioned by Senator Nelson, Mr. Morawetz said that the bill provided for a "central bank, shorn of many of its advantages."

"It would scatter the reserves of the country in various banks," he said, "but would leave the system under the domination of a central board appointed by the President.

BOSTON LOSES RATE FIGHT.

Waged War on Differential in New York's Favor for Years.

Washington, Oct. 20.—The Inter-State Commerce Commission today ordered that for two years the railroad rates on imports westbound from New York and Boston shall be the same. So ends the celebrated import rate case in which the cities fought for advantages.

The decision is a severe blow to the hopes of Boston, which for several years has been trying to eliminate the differential in favor of Baltimore.

Prior to January 1, 1910, the rates on first-class freight to Chicago stood: From Boston 70 cent; from New York 75 cents, and from Baltimore 67 cents. Striving to overcome this differential, Boston interests appealed to the railroads serving their city, and the roads agreed to cut the freight rate to 67 cents a hundred, the same as the Baltimore rate.

This precipitated the famous rate war, waged with such ferocity that finally the railroads and commercial bodies in the teritory affected apealed to the Inter-State Commerce Commission for arbitration. At the height of this war Baltimore's rate was 52 cents. Pending arbitration, the commission re-established the previous differentials, afterwards handing down its decision which advanced the Boston rate to 75 cents, on a par with New York, and fixed the Philadelphia rate at 69 cents, while the Baltimore rate was left at 67 cents.

The Bostonians made an appeal to the commission, the only result being the reaffirming of the previous ruling in the decision handed down last June. A second appeal from Boston has produced a similar result, embodied in the commission's order fo today.

HAS SOUTHERN PENSION PLAN.

General Young Wants $60,000,000 War Cotton Tax Used.

Washington, Oct. 20.—Members of Congress received today letters from General Bennett H. Young, commander-in-chief of the United Confederate Veterans, proposing a plan whereby the $60,000,000 collected by the Federal government as a direct tax upon cotton immediately following the Civil War can be disposed of. This tax the Supreme Court has declared illegal and the fund is now in the treasury.

General Young asks members of the House and Senate to apportion the fund among the several Southern States for pensioning Southern survivors of the war and the widows of the Confederate dead. He thinks this would be an equitable and generous way of returning to the people of the South money unlawfully taken from them by the government.

The sum is the result of a levy upon individual cotton growers of the South and was regarded at the time as a punishment as well as a means of forcing the South to pay a share of the cost of the war. Though the Supreme Court held the tax unconstitutional it was not discontinued until $60,000,000 had accumulated in the treasury.

Most of the original receipts given the cotton owners from their product have been lost or destroyed; therefore it is impossible to return the money direct to its owners.

BUSH GIVEN OVATION.

Home Town Turns Out to Welcome Youthful Hero.

Brainerd, Minn., Oct. 21.—Several thousand baseball enthusiasts greeted Leslie Bush, of the Philadelphia Athletics, upon his arrival here today. As he stepped from the train Bush was seized and tossed aloft by his friends. Every whistle in town screamed a welcome, and several factories and business houses closed to permit employees to attend the celebration, which included an automobile parade.

The home-coming festivities were concluded with a dance tonight.

PETITION OVERRULED.

Washington, Oct. 21.—David Lamar's application for a writ of habeas corpus to prevent his return to the Federal authorities in New York to answer an indictment for impersonating Congressmen in telephone talks with Wall Street financiers, was dismissed today by Chief Justice Clabaugh of the District Supreme Court. The justice held that a Congressman was an officer of the United States within the purview of the statutes forbidding impersonation. Lamar will appeal and furnish bond.

ROOSEVELT IN BRAZIL.

Received With Military Honors as He Stepped Ashore.

Rio Janeiro, Oct. 21.—Theodore Roosevelt was received with military honors as he stepped ashore from his steamer here today.

Edwin V. Morgan, United States ambassador to Brazil, with the staff of the embassy, went on board before the vessel docked with a reception committee headed by Senor Moreira, representing the ministry of foreign affairs; Lieut. Col. Achilles de Pederneiras, Brazilian attache at Washington; Don Jose Carlos Rodriguez, Admiral Antonio Couticho Gomes Peroira and Antonio Olyntho de Magalhaes, of the historical institute.

The party disembarked on the naval arsenal quay where a company of soldiers saluted while bands played the Brazilian and American National anthems.

A procession headed by Col. Roosevelt and the representative of the President of Brazil, proceeded to a reception room in the naval arsenal which was decolater with Brazilian flags and the Stars and Stripes intertwined. Here Col. Roosevelt was introduced to the leading officials.

Col. Roosevelt was then conducted to the Guananara Palace where he will reside during his sojourn.

The American ex-President paid his respects to the President of Brazil in a lengthy visit. The meeting was most cordial. He then called on Dr. Lauro Muller, minister of foreign affairs.

The official programme for the entertainment of the nation's guest is likely to keep Col. Roosevelt busy during his stay here. Tomorrow he will be the President's guest at a breakfast. Later he will visit the military college and speak before the Young Men's Christian Association. In the evening he will attend a performance at the municipal theatre.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday will be spent in a similar manner, Col. Roosevelt attending dinners in his honor, making sight-seeing excursions, and addressing local organizations. On Sunday the party will leave for Sao Paulo.

WHITE SOX VICTORIOUS.

Defeat Giants to Tune of Six to Four in Peoria, Ill.

Peoria, Ill., Oct. 21.—Tying the score in the sixth inning with a sacrifice fly by Sam Crawford, the Chicago White Sox meted out a victory over the New York Giants here today in the 8th inning by bunching a double, triple and three singles for three runs, which gave the American Leaguers the game 6 to 4.

WHY PENNANT LOST.

Charleston, W. Va., Bemourns Failure to Comply With Law.

Huntington, W. Va., Oct. 21.—Failure to comply with the laws of baseball cost the Charleston, W. Va., team the championship of the Ohio State League for 1913.

The league directors here today refused to allow the Charleston team two seven-inning games won from Maysville, Ky., September 21st. With the games thrown out the team dropped three points under that of the Chillicothe, Ohio, team to which the directors awarded the pennant.

President R. R. Pennywitt, of the Charleston club, announced he would appeal the case.

MORE PEANUT POLITICS.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, D. C., Oct. 21.—Three candidates are already in the race for the postmastership at Monroe. The fight promises to be a warm one and incidents of the Senatorial campaign of last year are likely to figure in the appointment. George Beasley, E. C. Winchester and James McNeely are the candidates who have been heard from so far. Beasley will probably have no chance of winning because of the attitude of the Carolina Democrat which was published at Monroe last year, and which made vicious attacks upon Senator Simmons. It is declared that this publication was more bitter against Senator Simmons than any other paper in the State.

Representative Page called at the Postoffice Department today and talked the matter over with Postmaster General Burleson. It is not believed that he will recommend Beasley, because it is generally understood that Beasley would be anything but acceptable to the senior Senator.

Jack Hagarty, the well known coach for A. & M. College at Raleigh wrote a friend here today that he is certain to defeat Georgetown University when his team meets the Blue and Gray warriors on the gridiron at Raleigh Thursday. A. & M. promises to be a contender in the South Atlantic championship this season.

PRIZE FIGHTERS IN TROUBLE.

Eleven Promoters, Fighters and Fans Face Trial.

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 21.—Jess Willard, heavyweight prize fighter, and ten others of the twelve concerned in the bout in which John W. Young was fatally injured at Vernon arena, August 22nd, must stand trial for alleged violation of the State law prohibiting prize fighting.

Judge Gavin Craig, of the Superior Court today overruled the demurrer the defendants had entered to the complaint against them and denied their motion to set aside the information.

W. J. Ford, assistant district attorney, then asked that the information against Eddie Webster, a second at the fight, be dismissed. When the judge had discharged Webster, he called upon Willard and the ten others including T. J. McCarey and Al Greenwald, promoters, and Charles F. Tyton, referee, to plead. Each man answered "not guilty." Their trials were set for January 7th, 1914.

In overruling the demurrer, Judge Craig gave this definition of a sparring match:

"A sparring is one in which two persons attempt, through skill and science to strike each other and to avoid being struck but in which there is no attempt to inflict serious injury and in which the incentive to win is not through a 'knockout' but through skill in boxing."

Washington, Oct. 21.—The Supreme Council of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry, in executive session today elected George F. Moore sovereign grand inspector general in the State of Alabama, and editor of the official organ of the council, lieutenant grand commander in place of Samuel E. Adams, who died March 29th, 1912.

ACTIVITIES AT SOUTHPORT

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Southport, N. C., Oct. 21.—While the coaling station is not exactly an established institution for Southport as yet, still there is a coal dock and coal upon it here, and the fish boat Martin J. Marran coaled up at the dock today.

Work continues at the Cape Fear Laundry & Manufacturing Co.'s plant, the smokestack is in position and boiler under roof, and the concrete foundation for the engine is being placed. Lumber for the completion of the building is on the way.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Bank of Brunswick was held last night at which the following board of directors was elected for the ensuing year: W. H. Pyke, J. Berg, M. C. Guthrie, J. B. Ruark, Richard Dosher, Dr. J. A. Dosher, John Jenrette Richmond Galloway, Price Furpless, Wm. St. George, Lindsay Walker. The reports of president and officers were made, and considering the general quietude in all business, proved satisfactory. The directors elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, W. H. Pyke; vice president, P. Furpless; cashier, J. R. Branch; attorney, C. Ed Taylor.

The Carolina Coast Products Company, after weeks of hard work, is in a way to reap real financial benefits, as the result. Monday the plant was ready to do work and there was the steamer Marran lying at the dock with the first load of fish and a big one, to be unloaded. It is true the Marran had been waiting from Saturday, but this only served to stimulate work of getting elevator and conveyors ready to unload. The outlook is for a big catch of fish, which means profit for Capt. Bussells and those engaged with him in this enterprise.

There has been a genuine freshet in the Cape Fear for more than a week and such condition changes the fishing conditions to marked degree, bringing down fish that are rarely to be seen or caught in the waters in this vicinity. As an instance, a rock was hooked by an eager angler, who was seated on Miss Kate Stuart's dock.

The blow of Monday, which called for a northwest storm warning, was the severest in years. There was no damage to shipping here, but there was a gale of wind, far stronger than the one of a few weeks ago, which called for a hurricane display of flags.

Last Thursday Capt. L. D. Potter, with a force of men went to the schooner Greenleaf Johnson, lying ashore on the bar at Shallotte Inlet, and threw overboard the deck load of lumber, hoping that this would lighten the vessel so that the tugs could pull her off on high water. It helped and on trial the schooner was loosened to some extent, and it was expected she would come off on the high water of Sunday. Two tugs and the cutter Seminole made the effort, and after getting the schooner started about nine feet, she went solid aground and could not be started again, and the effort was abandoned. With a strong blow of Monday, it is thought the vessel will go to pieces, as wind and sea conditions favored such a result.

The tug Columbia, of Savannah, bound for that port, was here for a harbor on Monday, leaving this morning.

The four masted schooner, Dorothy Bell, which came into this harbor a week ago, leaking, is now prepared to go North, and will leave in tow as soon as the tug, now on the way from New York, reaches here.

Superintendent of County School M. C. Guthrie is sending a bulletin to each school, naming Thursday, November 6th, as Good Roads Day, and suggesting suitable observance of same. The suggestion is for each school to hold appropriate indoor exercises in the morning, and in the afternoon to have physical demonstration by cleaning up the school grounds or the improvement of the school building.

Mr. S. K. Robertson, assistant in Boys' Club work, of the Farmers' Demonstration work. West Raleigh, has agreed to meet Supt. Guthrie early next month and go with him on a visit in the county to meet the Boys' Corn Clubs of Brunswick ocunty, and see what progress has been made and to offer any aid that may be needed to further this good agricultural endeavor, of more bushels of corn to the acre every year.

Last Thursday afternoon at her home at Fort Caswell, Mrs. Springer charmingly entertained at tea, complimentary to Mrs. Butler, of Edgefield, S. C., who is here on a visit with her daughter, Mrs. James W. Thompson. The color design was pink and white, which was prettily carried out in decorations and menu.

Miss Kate Stuart sailed last Saturday on the Clyde steamship Cherokee and will enjoy a two weeks visit in New York.

BARON C. TAYLOR DEAD.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Tarboro, N. C., Oct. 21.—Baron C. Taylor, widely known in railroad circles, died here Monday night, aged 61 years. He had been ill since the first of the month, when he suffered a stroke of paralysis.

At one time Mr. Taylor was general foreman of the blacksmith department of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad, with headquarters at Rocky Mount. About 15 years ago he moved to Tarboro, and for a time was in the employ of the East Carolina Railway. He was a native of Wilson county.

Surviving are his wife, three daughters, Mrs. A. L. Dozier and Mrs. W. G. Horne, of Rocky Mount, and Mrs. J. L. Bright, of Tarboro, and one son, Thomas A. Taylor, of Rocky Mount. Four brothers survive: Messrs. B. F. Taylor, of Oxford; H. C. Taylor, of Louisburg; Rev. A. J. Taylor, of Waverly Hall, Ga., and John Taylor, of Wilson.

The funeral services were conducted this morning from the house by Rev. L. B. Jones, pastor of St. James' Methodist church. Interment was made in Rocky Mount.

Greensboro, N. C., Oct. 21.—After hearing the evidence against Fred Stanfield, charged with the murder of Will Hatchett Saturday night, Judge Brown in municipal court today held the defendant for the December grand jury. In default of bail Stanfield went to jail. There was evidence that Stanfield shot himself after killing Hatchett in order to corroborate his story of self defense.

GREAT CROWDS AT THE FAIR

Big Week Opens in Raleigh—Capital Case Argued—City and County Schools—House Breaking Charge—Other News.

(Special Star Correspondence.

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 21.—With weather rather cold but fair, and with crowds that probably exceeded any previous record for opening day, the 53rd annual State fair was opened today at noon by Governor Craig, who delivered a brief address in which he paid tribute to the great usefulness of the State fair, particularly in furthering the agricultural, good roads, and other varied interests of the State.

The procession of officers of the fair and distinguished guests, including the Governor and other State officers, started from lower Fayetteville street at 11:30 o'clock, reaching the fair grounds at noon for the opening ceremonies.

The management of the fair has never provided as numerous special features for the fair as for this year and an unusual feature will be the opening of the fair grounds at night when there will be the sensational presentation of the famous Payne fireworks presenting "The Destruction of Pompeii."

The appeal of Walter Shelton, under sentence in Rockingham county to die in the electric chair November 28th, for the murder of his wife, Lula Shelton, March 25th of this year, was heard by the Supreme Court today, Attorney Bickett appearing for the State and P. T. Stein and C. O. McMichael for the condemned man. Shelton had been separated from his wife for a little more than a year when he made good repeated threats to shoot her. The killing was at the home of Thomas Black, in Reidsville, Shelton having entered through the back door and gone into the sitting room where he fired on his wife twice without saying a word. She lived about half an hour. He had been importuning her to come back to him and she would not. They have one small child. There are exceptions to evidence and to the charge delivered to the jury by Judge Lane, who tried the case.

The question of whether or not a municipality maintaining a separate chartered system of graded schools has the right to share the county fund set aside by the county board of education for purposes of building and repairing school buildings was argued in the Supreme Court today by Manly, Hendren & Womble for the plaintiff and G. H. Hastings for the defendant. The case is Graded School Commissioners of Winston-Salem vs. the Forsyth County Board of education. The Winston-Salem commissioners desired to erect a new school building and made demand on the county board for a proportionate part of the county building fund on the ground that the city pays its part of the building fund and, in fact, more than half of all the school tax of Forsyth county. Judge Cooke ruled in favor of the Winston-Salem commissioners and the case comes up on appeal by the county board.

Charged with breaking into the residence of Montgomery Miller, a merchant of Old Town, Forsyth county, and sentenced to one year on the roads for this offense by Judge C. M. Cooke, the appeal of Walter Spear was heard in the Supreme Court today, the attorney general for the prosecution and Watson, Buxton & Watson for the defendant. The defense is that the prisoner did not commit the offense and that, even if he did, he was drinking and did not know what he was doing. Mrs. Miller testified that she believed him the man who entered her room. He put his hand on her throat and she smelled turpentine and it appeared that Spear had hurt his finger at the store that night and turpentine had been used. The jury recommended the prisoner to the mercy of the court. This accounts for the one year sentence.

A commission was issued today to Chas. H. Hinson as second lieutenant, Troop A, Lincolnton.

Two charters were issued today for new corporations. The Eureka Milling Co., of Gibsonville, Guilford county, capital $5,000 by B. Davidson, B. F. Love and M. B. McLean for flour, corn and feed mill. The Machinery Supply Co., of Salisbury, capital $7,000 authorized and $2,500 subscribed by R. H. Morrison and M. A. Hodgin and others.

UNIVERSALISTS IN CHICAGO.

Kinston Delegates to Convention—Got to Judge Allen's Heart.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., Oct. 21.—Rev. W. O. Bodell, pastor of the Universalist church here, is on his way to Chicago with three other delegates from North Carolina to attend the general convention of the Universalists. Mr. Bodell will urge the National missionary association of the church to locate new ministers in this State, where now three clergymen are doing the work of six in serving 15 congregations. North Carolina is a part of the mission territory of the church.

It was a unique jury that sat in two dicorce cases at the court house in this city when on the last day of a term, it was hard to secure the 12 men necessary because all the veniremen had been dismissed. Four lawyers, the clerk, a fire engine driver, the court crier and others volunteered and were impanelled. The cases proceeded without protest by the plaintiffs or defendants, and the court was continued with due dignity. An incident shortly before convulsed the attorneys and others in attedance upon the court. A burly negro was convicted of an ugly offense, and Judge Allen was inclined to inquire further into his record before passing judgment. The situation was growing serious, and the defendant seemed to realize this. His Honor proceeded to remark upon the gravity of the case, and finally turned upon the prisoner at the bar and asked: "Have you any excuse or explanation for your conduct?" "Sho, I have, Mr. Jedge," was the confident reply. Judge Allen is a native of Duplin county, and his affection and attachment for his old home is well known here. "Well," he said, "I'd like to hear it right now." The expectant audience gasped with surprise when the black with perfect composure unhesitatingly answered: "Why, Jedge, I'm from Duplin county." The excuse didn't save him from the deserved penalty.

The board of trustees of the Kinston city schools have taken another deeided step forward by the employment of one of the best equipped teachers in the whole country to supervise the music in the primary grades. Miss Muffly, of the East Carolina Teachers' Training School at Greenville, a native of Baltimore, who has studied under the foremost masters of Europe and America, will give the pupils the benefit of the best instruction obtainable.

COLD WAVE AT BURGAW.

Cotton Receipts Small—Good Roads Days—Depot Facilities.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Burgaw, N. C., Oct. 21.—The cold wave struck Burgaw Monday accompanied by a high wind, but the frost this morning was light. The fire bell sounded an alarm Monday afternoon, but it proved nothing more than the burning out of a chimney at the residence of Mr. T. P. Raney.

County Commissioner T. J. Armstrong was here today in connection with receiving the tax books and turning them over to the sheriff.

The quantity of cotton brought to this market this season is very small compared to previous seasons. As the season advances, it becomes more and more apparent that the crop in this section is going to be very short. There is a good weed but the cotton isn't there. It was too wet for cotton.

Quite a number of Burgaw people will attend the State Fair this week, some going by automobile.

If the Governor can don his overalls and go out and throw dirt on the roads November 5th and 6th, as he proposes to do, it looks like the average ordinary citizen might do likewise. Just why any body should oppose this movement it is hard to see. If all the men in Burgaw will get out on those days and work, they can put several miles of road in good shape.

Mr. O. P. Middleton, of Warsaw, cotton buyer for Messrs. Sprunt & Son, was here today buying cotton. He came here from Rocky Point where he bought cotton also.

Mrs. Jackson Johnson, of Brunswick county, is to address the Ladies' Missionary Society here Wednesday evening at the Presbyterian church. All the ladies of the town are cordially invited.

Rev. Mr. Harrington, a student at Wake Forest, preached in the Baptist church here morning and evening last Sunday. He preached able sermons and the Baptists were fortunate in securing him, as they are at present without a pastor.

Some of the people in Pender are so bitterly opposed to the stock law, they are talking of applying to the Governor to restrain the law; just how this could be done is difficult to say, as the Governor has not even the veto power, and certainly he possesses no authority to set a law aside. The quicker they realize that the law is here and govern themselves accordingly, the better it will be for all.

If the A. C. L. does not take the initiative in furnishing more adequate warehouse and office facilities here, it is not at all unlikely that the Corporation Commission will be asked to take a hand in it. The present warehouse is altogether unfit for the business here and, as to the office and waiting room for passengers, they would have served 30 years ago fairly well, but are not now in keeping with the times and the needs of the traveling public. The receipts for freight and passengers here justify better accommodations.

Washington, Oct. 21.—George Fred Williams, of Boston, has been selected by President Wilson for minister to Greece. The post was offered to Prof. Garrett Droppers, of Williams College, who declined that he might continue his educational work.

Men Welcome Mother's Friend

A Duty that Every Man Owes to Those who Perpetuate the Race.

It is just as important that men should know of progressive methods in advance of motherhood. The suffering, pain and distress incident to child-bearing can be easily avoided by having at hand a bottle of Mother's Friend.

This is a wonderful, penetrating, external application that relieves all tension upon the muscles and enables them to expand without the painful strain upon the ligaments. Thus there is avoided all those nervous spells; the tendency to nausea or morning sickness is counteracted, and a bright, sunny, happy disposition is preserved that reflects wonderfully upon the character and temperament of the little one soon to open its eyes in bewilderment at the joy of his arrival. You can obtain a bottle of "Mother's Friend" at any drug store at $1.00, and it will be the best dollar's worth you ever obtained. It preserves the mother's health, enables her to make a quick and complete recovery, and thus with renewed strength she will eagerly devote herself to the care and attention which mean so much to the welfare of the child. Write to the Bradfield Regulator Co., 129 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for their valuable and instructive book of guidance for expectant mothers. Get a bottle of Mother's Friend to-day.

There is bound to be a strike on account of Governor Craig's proclamation calling upon all men in North Carolina to work on the roads November 5th and 6th. It will be a ten strike for better highways in North Carolina.

Governor Sulzer's idea of his impeachment trial is that it was a farce. Of course, it was a farce, but he was a bad actor and lost the cue to the play. It really looks as if everything is a farce or a farcette when politics is involved.

The Charlotte fair is to be held next week and from the Evening Chronicle it is learned that next Wednesday is "the big day." Since Charlotte is the center of the South's cotton milling industry, and comes very nearly being the hub of advanced agriculture, the Queen City ought to have a fair that will be very much like an exposition.

Raleigh has a citizen who is accused of using $139 worth of water in three months, but it was no sign that it was on account of his being on the water wagon. It is said it was because the water supplied by the city at "the flat rate" was allowed to run to waste, whereas a meter would have been a check on either extravagance or wastefulness on the part of the family.

Tom Watson, of Georgia, is on trial this week, but while the charge is "circulating obscene literature," involving certain charges against the Catholic Church, Tom's real offense is being either a bigot or a fanatic. The red-headed Georgian is possessed of a considerable amount of brilliancy but he never seems to have been in possession of anything like an equilibrator.

Governor Craig will don overalls on Good Roads Days, November 5th and 6th, and prove that he is the Good Roads Governor. The Star nominated him for that kind of constructive Governor and we can draw the files on all contemporaries when they get gay. By the way, how many editors are going to do an honest day's work on the 5th or 6th, unless they happen to fall on the day of "going to press?"

ANOTHER FREIGHT RATE FIGHT.

It was predicted by the railroads that any concession as to freight rates in North Carolina would start a fight in South Carolina and probably in other States and that the result probably would be a readjustment of all the rates south of Pittsburg and Ohio river points. It seems that the prediction is coming true, for Charleston has launched a vigorous just freight campaign. The movement seems to be one in behalf of the port of Charleston, but the probability is that similar campaigns will be started at interior points, while it is quite possible that it will become a State-wide fight like that which prevailed during the last eight months in North Carolina.

Charleston proposes to raise a fighting fund of $20,000. A few days ago the City Council appropriated $10,000 for the campaign fund, with the proviso that the business men contribute an equal amount. On Monday night a large meeting of Charleston business men and citizens was held at the Charleston Hotel and it was decided to raise $11,000 to supplement the $10,000 appropriation by the city government. A general committee was appointed, and a press committee composed of newspaper men was named, while 15 canvassing committees were appointed to solicit subscriptions to the fund. Plans were also adopted for the judicious expenditure of the fund in carrying on the fight. The Charleston News and Courier yesterday said in an editorial:

"The campaign which was launched at the Charleston Hotel last night under the joint auspices of all the commercial bodies of the city, working in conjunction with the city government, has for its object the raising of a fund with which to secure for Charleston freight rates which will put this port on a parity with other ports in this part of the country and secure for it the advantages to which it is by right entitled. There can be no question that at present the most unjust discriminations are practiced against this city. The statistics which, at much labor, have been gathered by the business men who have been working on this proposition for months prove this beyond all doubt. Only a few of the detailed figures have been made public as yet but the statement is made that for a large territory there is no commodity upon which Charleston now enjoys the freight rates which should be hers under the conditions which have governed in the basing of rates to various other Atlantic coast cities."

Wilmington recently joined the State-wide fight against discriminatory rates, but our South Carolina friends probably know the result. Rates for the interior were reduced but it was the result of a compromise based upon the condition that no readjustment of the Wilmingon rates would be conceded. Thus discrimination against the port of Wilmington was allowed to stand with the consent of the State. This is significant to the Charleston fight in that it shows that the carriers are not disposed to recognize the ports as factors in the making of rates for the South Atlantic territory. However, Charleston may fare better unless the State makes her the goat all the same as was done to Wilmington.

We are rather inclined to believe that a readjustment of all the port rates at this time would be best for the ports and the railroads. Within 12 to 18 months traffic will be flowing through the Panama canal, and we take it that if the Southern lines expect to make an asset of the inter-ocean waterway that is to bring the shipping of the world past our ports, it is time the rates were being readjusted along that line. Of course, if the Southern trunk lines are not going to avail themselves of the ocean gateways to increase their traffic by encouraging the development of commerce, they are likely to keep on discriminating against those ports which are nearest to the canal. They might do that temporarily, but while the Gulf trunk lines are getting ready to do business through the gulf ports, we do not hesitate to predict that in less than three years the South Atlantic trunk lines will see their opportunity and avail themselves of every ocean gateway through which their Southern territory can share in the world's commerce.

Southern traffic for the canal is going to be handled through our South Atlantic ports or through ports to the north of us, but if reasonable port rates are provided now the South Atlantic ports will begin to attract the shipping that will make business for the railroads. Otherwise the ports farther north and furtherest from the steamship route to the canal will get the shipping and make it difficult to open the fartherest south ports for many years to come.

TRAINING IN BOYS AS BOOSTERS.

Atlanta appreciates the fact that boys will soon be men and accordingly she is beginning now to make boosters of them so they may later take a constructive part in the development of the city. The livest wires in Wilmington today are young men who were but boys a few years ago. Well, the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce proposes to inoculate the school boys of Atlanta with the "Atlanta Spirit," so says The Atlanta Constitution.

The Atlanta Chamber proposes to organize a junior chamber of commerce and a committee has been appointed to work through the schools of the city in getting the boys organized for the work. Something of the plan to be carried out in an educational way can be gleaned from this reference to it by The Constitution:

"Harrison Jones is in charge of the committee and at a recent luncheon tendered by Wilmer L. Moore, educators and citizens having most to do with the life of young Atlanta took enthusiastically to the idea.

"There is every reason why a training for life or for a vocation should be supplemented also by a training in civic [illegible] and enterprise. We owe the At[illegible] of today to the energy and foresig[illegible] of the pioneers, later, to the same qualities exhibited in their sons. If we are to perpetuate the Atlanta of tomorrow upon an even broader scale, the intelligent co-operation of the boys now rising to manhood will be indispensable.

"These ends will be gained not simply by the teaching of civil government and of political economy. Such studies are well enough in their way, but they are too abstract to leave an abiding impression on the mind of the average student. They may serve admirably with the youth who is to become a lawyer, a politician or a teacher, but to the future business man they are likely to make only the casual appeal of any study on the general curriculum."

It would be a good idea for the new Commercial Club or the Chamber of Commerce to enlist the interest of the boys in the work that must be done for Wilmington.

BETTER BABIES, BETTER STOCK.

The State Fair, which opened at Raleigh yesterday, is the first in which better race products are to be recognized along with better stock and better farm products. North Carolina is moving in the right direction when she begins to emphasize the humane care and training of infants, and we haven't the slightest doubt that the next generation will show a marked improvement in the race as a result of a campaign of education among parents in the State.

The Greensboro News takes unction from the fact this better babies movement "found its inauguration at the Central Carolina Fair in Greensboro." The work along that line at the fair there this Fall provoked deep interest, and it is gratifying that the good work is to get more momentum at Raleigh this week. The News chortles that the manipulators of the State Fair have found it wise to secure the services of Guilford county's superintendent of health, Dr. W. W. Jones, in taking charge of the baby department of the State Fair. Dr. Jones will spend two days in Raleigh, and here is the way The News speaks about it:

"He will take some bulletins prepared for the Guilford County Board of Health which will be distributed among the visitors to the State Fair, and in general inform and show the people of North Carolina how things are done in the best county in the State."

Well, it's worth bragging about. It is the biggest cause of the age, and Greensboro is entitled to all the glory she can get out of it. But, just listen to the way the beoastful News puts it, mind you: "In general, inform and show the people of North Carolina how things are done in the best county in the State." For one we are glad that Guilford has her Dr. Jones, and that he is taking a leading part in such a tremendous work for North Carolina. The "better babies" movement is one that we would like to see carried to every community in the State.

It was regarded as wonderful that an inch of snow fell in Wilmington on Thanksgiving Day last year, but it is more remarkable that a large portion of the South reported precipitation on the 20th of October. The flurry was heaviest in the mountain regions, according to reports from Asheville, Chattanooga and Nashville. So far as the Weather Bureau records go, the snowfall on Monday was the second on record, the first having occurred October 28th, 1910. There was no sign of snow in Wilmington last Tuesday but a flurry was reported at Florence.

We never advise a boy not to leave the country and go to the city, or not to leave the city and go to the country. We would not think of advising a boy to stay in a country that is 100 years behind the times, nor would we advise a boy to stay away from a country that is so progressive that he has better opportunities than if he were to remain in a city that lets others beat it two in the game. A boy does as he pleases, and when the boys leave home it is the best sign in the world that they are flying the coop of a lot of dead ducks.

Says the Charlotte Chronicle: "What has become of the Greater Charlotte Investment Company? Here is something that could have done vastly more than talk to make Charlotte grow, but the idea seems to be among the deceased." What good is an investment company that doesn't know how to invest or a get-factories company that doesn't know how to get factories? Blessed is a community with men who have sufficient initiative to initiate others.

CURRENT COMMENT.

"One of the things not to worry about," says the Wilmington Star, "is whether Wilmington is going to keep on getting there with all four feet." Thus, we discover that Wilmington is not a centipede.—Columbia State.

Some misguided genius in Australia insists that he has seen Halley's comet on three successive occasions. Had the discoverer lived at Wilmington, we would merely have wondered as to the name of the brand.—Asheville Citizen.

Raleigh has been "demonstrating." The city owns its waterworks. As is usual, the city found there was a great waste of water under the system of flat rates, so a meter was placed in a house where the owner was paying $6.00 a quarter, when the little machine showed that he had consumed or wasted water to the amount of $139.00 in three months. As a result meters are to be installed [illegible] the city month by month until the entire system is covered.—G[illegible]sboro Record.

The development of shipping facilities at Wilmington and other ports along the Carolina coast can but have a direct bearing upon rates all over the State and can not fail to offer relief from excessive rates. The high rates now paid in North Carolina are due largely to the fact that they were drafted in the absence of water competition. With the establishment of a regular line of steamers from Wilmington to Northern points, a long step forward will have been taken in the fight for more equitable freight rates.—Charlotte News.

Farmers interested in the establishment of a creamery at Mooresville will be interested in the following authentic statement: During the month of August, 1913, there was shipped from Mooresville to the Catawba Creamery at Hickory, 5,335 pounds of cream, containing 1,463 pounds butterfat. This amount was sent in by nineteen patrons and the value of the product to them was around $400. There is an active demand for butter at present and the Catawba Creamery shipped during the month of August from Hickory 24,000 pounds. Those who are figuring on increasing their cream supply can find a ready sale for the same at Hickory until the creamery is established at this place.—Mooresville Enterprise.

News comes from McColl, S. C., of a 100-acre tract four miles from there, 48 acres of it in cultivation, selling at $265 an acre. If it were east from McColl it would be on the North Carolina side of the faint line separating counties which within recent years have taken place among the most prosperous agricultural communities anywhere in the United States. Farmers' automobiles have become more numerous than farmers' buggies were not so very long ago. Perhaps $265 an acre will seem moderate for Marlboro land after a fe wyears more. It is certain that, great though the appreciation in value of Southern farm lands generally has been, this process has by no means come to an end.—Charlotte Observer.

CUMBERLAND COURT.

Big Lumber Company Receivership to be Heard at This Term.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Fayetteville, Oct. 21.—Cumberland Superior Court convened here for a two weeks' term this morning, with Judge C. C. Lyon presiding. Only civil actions will be tried. One of the oldest cases on the docket was taken up the first thing this morning, this being the cause of Stewart vs. McCormick, which resulted in a mistrial at the last term. It is a land litigation.

The most interesting case in its potentialities, that will be tried in Fayetteville in many a day is that of the Harnett Lumber Company vs. the Newton-McArthur Lumber Company, a receivership suit involving a $75,000 lumber plant, 30,000,000 feet of timber and the validity of signatures on $150,000 worth of paper, which has been transferred here from the Bladen court. The change of venue was obtained last week, when attorneys for the creditors and Judge J. C. Diggs, receiver for the Newton McArthur company, made a trip to Elizabethtown for that purpose. Commissioners have been appointed to take evidence bearing on the case. It will not be heard at this term.

The Newton-McArthur Lumber Company was thrown into the hands of a receiver early in August by Adam McArthur, of this city, a stockholder of the company. It is said that various members of the McArthur family have denied their signatures to notes which aggregate $150,000. Something sensational is looked for when the action is brought to a hearing.

Hon. John G. Shaw, of Shaw & MacLean; A. W. MacLean, of MacLean, Varser and MacLean, attorneys for Adam McArthur, and the Harnett Lumber Company; H. L. Cook, attorney for creditors; Murray M. McGuire, of Richmond, representing bondholders, and Judge J. Crawford Biggs, the received, were the men who made the trip to Elizabethtown, asking Judge Lyon to remove the case here for the convenience of witnesses. The chief owners of the company are Adam McArthur and J. Sprunt Newton, of this city.

SENATORS MUST RETURN.

"Either Resign or Go to Work," is the Order.

Washington, Oct. 21.—Demands that Senators either "resign or go to work," that absent members be brought back to Washington by the use of "any orce that may be necessary" and that the "miserable pretense" of trying to do business without a quorum be ended, marked the opening of today's session of the Senate.

All absent Senators were telegraphed to return to Washington. Leaders on both sides joined in the demand that the "farce" of recent Senate proceedings be ended. Senator LaFollette leading the fight for the enactment of the seaman's bill, began the attack on Senate absentees, but it was taken up and vigorously endorsed by Senator Kern, Democratic leader, and by Senators Borah, Cummins, Republicans, and others.

Senator Cummins said the Senate had "allowed itself to get into a humiliating position."

Roll call at first brought in only 45 Senators and sergeant-at-arms began to seek absentees.

A quorum finally was secured but the demand for their return of absent members will not be relaxed.

TO AID IMMIGRANTS.

Catholic Church Will Establish Bureau for That Purpose.

Boston, Mass., Oct. 21.—Aids to immigrants were considered this afternoon by the Catholic Mission Congress in session here. Bishop Peter J. Muldoon, of Rockford, Ill., referred to the great tide of humanity pouring into America from foreign lands and said:

"The Catholic church is summoned to care for not only the souls of at least 50 per cent of this mighty throng, but also to supply at times aid for their material wants."

In order properly to do the work desired, Bishop Muldoon recommended the establishment of a Catholic bureau for obtaining information in regard to Catholic immigration.

Tonight there was a meeting of the bishops and the League of Catholic Women extended a reception to the women visitors to the congress.

NATURE PROVIDES FLY TRAP

Venus, One of the Greatest Wonders of Plant World, Described—May Test Its Efficacy in This Section.

One of the most wonderful inventions of Dame Nature is the Venus fly-trap, or as scientists call it, the dionoea, which in this country finds its home mainly in the lowlands around Wilmington.

A description of this plant was recently re-printed in the Technical World which was read by Mr. F. G. Merrill, of New Orleans, La., and he became so much interested in it that he has written Postmaster Green to place him in communication with someone who can furnish him specimens of this peculiar member of vegetation.

The plant is found in the lowlands around Delgado and Castle Haynes and to some extent in other places nearer the city. A specimen transplanted into moss and rich earth will thrive if kept moist, and it furnishes the best kind of fly-trap as it is always on duty and looks after itself. As the older plants lose their vitality fresh shoots appear and new traps developed.

It is regarded by botanists as one of the most wonderful plants of the vegetable world for it seems to exercise a discrimination of taste that is more than human. It is provided with three delicate hair triggers, and exudes a sort of honey that attracts the flies. Woe to a fly, however, that touches one of the triggers, for quick as a flash the two heavy leaves of the trap close upon the victim and crush it much as an ordinary steel trap acts. Once the fly is in, there is no escape, and the plant settles down to digest its meal of fresh meat—this being one of the few plants that take to a meat diet.

A species of gastric juice is secreted by the closed trap, and the body of the fly undergoes a process of real digestion so that the nutriment is absorbed by the plant. Then when the fly is sucked dry the trap opens and disgorges the indigestible remains.

The most wonderful thing about the Venus fly-trap is that it knows the difference between a live fly and a dead or injured fly or any foreign substance such as a stick. Touch the triggers with a lead pencil and the trap will respond very slowly. Partly crush a fly so that it will not show much life, and the trap still responds slowly. But let a live fly touch the triggers and snap go the jaws of the trap together imprisoning it. The action is almost instantaneous, and one has to be a close watcher to see the trap in the actual act of closing.

THE MASONIC SUIT.

Action is Brought by Irregular Branch of Freemasonry.

It was stated from an authoritative source in local Masonic circles yesterday that the Raleigh dispatch which appeared in yesterday's Star, regarding a libel suit brought by the Supreme Council, Scottish Rite Masons against the Grand Lodge of Masons of North Carolina, would have been substantially correct had it included a statement that the Scottish Rite Masons who are plaintiffs in the case are not the Scottish Rites who are recognized as regular by the Grand Lodge, A. F. & A. M. of North Carolina, nor, in fact, by any other Grand Lodge in the country.

"The organization which is bringing the action, and of which M. W. Bayliss, a government clerk in Washington, is the head, has been steadily seeking recognition and as steadily been refused the same by the legitimate Supreme Council of both continents and Grand Lodges of this country," it is pointed out by local Masons. "Grand Masters of several jurisdictions," it is said, "have issued edicts regarding the Bayliss organization, declaring it irregular," etc. It was some such declaration as this by the regular Masonic authorities of North Carolina that caused the present suit.

It is further pointed out by local Masons that "there is no connection whatever between the Scottish Rite Masonry of which Barton Smith and James D. Richardson are Grand Commanders of the Northern and Southern jurisdictions in this country, respectively, and the Bayliss organization. In fact, any regular Mason who knowingly affiliates or holds Masonic intercourse with the latter organization, is promptly expelled."

The Raleigh dispatch would indicate that the harmony of the Masonic fraternity in North Carolina was marred by serious trouble between the root and one of its higher branches, which local Masons say is not the case, but that the facts are as outlined above.

MORELLE DIDN'T APPEAR.

Navahoe Engineer Wanted on Liquor-selling Charge Forfeits Bond.

Making the second Clyde Line employe within the month to forfeit his bond, R. G. Morelle, former second engineer on the Navahoe, failed to appear yesterday at noon when his name was called in Justice Harriss' court to answer to a charge of violating the prohibition law. His bond of $100 was declared forfeited, and a capias issued for his arrest. Last Tuesday a week ago, John W. Steerer, former head steward on the Clyde Line steamship Cherokee, was scheduled to be tried in Justice Harriss' court on a similar charge, but he failed to appear and his bond of $200 was declared forfeited. The affidavits in both cases were sworn out before Justice Harriss by Mr. H. Mack Godwin.

Basketball Last Night.

Two games of basketball were played at the Boys' Brigade armory last night, in the Tuesday Night League. The first game was between the Cubs and the Athletics, the latter winning by a score of 32 to 15. The feature of this game was the work of McCartney, who made eight field goals. The second game was between the Giants and the Company B Juniors, the latter taking the game by a score of 16 to 9. The splendid work of the Juniors, who are among the youngest members of the Brigade, was the feature of this game. The contests were witnessed by a number of persons interested in this form of sport.

OUTLINE THE WINTER WORK

Activities of the Y. M. C. A. Will Begin in Few Days—Tentative Schedule of Gymnasium Classes Made Known.

Plans for the regular Winter's work at the Y. M. C. A. are being made. Prominent among the activities that will be started during the next few days will be the Fellowship Bible Class under the leadership of Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure.

This class will hold its first session in the Bible Class rooms on the second floor of the new building, Monday night, October 28th, at 7 o'clock. Luncheon will be served promptly on the hour and at 7:20 the class will resume its regular studies, the course to be decided on by the membership at the first meeting, when officers will be elected for the ensuing year.

For several years this class has been one of the most active features of this association work in the city, and under the continued faithful leadership of Dr. McClure and the splendid facilities the building affords this class should and will again take the leadership.

Among other Bible classes to be organized will be those for Grammar school boys, high school boys and employed boys under the leadership of Edward Roberts, boys' work director, and in the men's department a class for personal workers and one for those interested in "Life Problems." There will also be separate religious meetings for boys and men on Sunday afternoons and an effort made to bring from time to time as speakers for these meetings, the religious leaders of the country.

The gymnasium equipment has been installed and the men are now busy polishing the floor and laying out the basketball, indoor baseball and handball courts, preparatory to opening the regular classes the first of next week. The general plan of the department will be two class sessions and an open period for each division. Below is the tentative schedule: Business men's club, Monday and Thursday, 5:45 to 6:30; Young Men's Club, Tuesday and Friday, 6:15 to 7:00; Seniors, Monday and Thursday, 8:30 to 9:30; Friday night, Senior night; Senior Leaders Corps, Friday night, 7:30 to 8:15; employed boys, Monday and Thursday, 7:25 to 8:25; Tuesday night, employed boys' night; High School boys, Monday and Thursday, 3:30 to 4:30; Junior "A," Tuesday and Friday; Junior "Preps," Saturday, 10:20 to 11 A. M.; messenger boys, Monday and Thursday, 4:30 to 5:00.

Physical and medical examinations will be given all members of the physical department and special exercise will be prescribed as needed. The swimming pool is already proving a very popular spot. The water is pumped through a large filter every day and tests taken to see that the water is pure.

The educational department will also take its place beside the other phases of work and plans are already on foot for classes in preparatory and commercial subjects.

MAY MAKE NAVY TEAM.

Wessell, Wilmington Boy, Features at Annapolis.

The following from a recent issue of the Washington Post will be of interest to many Wilmington friends of the gentleman spoken of:

"Annapolis, Md., Oct. 14.—The work of the Naval Academy football squad this afternoon consisted of short signal drills for the first and second teams and a line-up between two elevens called from the other substitutes and squad men.

"The feature of the latter portion of the work was the excellent forward passing of Wessell, one of the candidates for quarterback. More doubt hangs around the selection for this place than for any other position on the team.

"The leading candidates are Vaill and Mitchell, but Vinson and Austin are pressing them hard, and today's work makes Wessell a serious contender, as none of the Navy players has shown much aptitude on getting off the pass so far this season. Wessell is a stocky fellow who played well last season, his first year on the squad.

"The coaches are confronted with the fact that the team is going ahead faster than they wish, and this was the reason that they were given only a short signal drill today.

"As ten of the players were first team men last year, and a majority were on the team the year before, they have jumped into the stride at once. This is not as the coaches wish, and the work will be very light for a while."

SEVERAL FIRES YESTERDAY.

Store and Residence on North Ninth Street Partially Burned.

The cold weather brought with it a succession of fires yesterday but the fire department was on the job and only one amounted to anything, this being a store and residence at No. 204 North Ninth street, occupied by Rena Hawkins, colored, which was partially burned yesterday afternoon shortly after 2 o'clock, the estimated loss being $600, partly covered by insurance. The wind was blowing and the sparks from the burning building caused several houses in the vicinity to be set on fire but these were quickly extinguished.

The fire was caused by sparks from the chimney. Almost the entire top was burned off beore the flames were subdued. The contents were badly damaged by the water and wreckage. While the firemen were busy with this fire another alarm was turned in. This proved to be a house at No. 314 1-2 North Tenth street, occupied by Sarah Preston, colored. The damage amounted to about $5. Sparks from the chimney were responsible for the slight blaze.

A fire alarm was turned in yesterday morning at 9:20 o'clock from box 52, the fire being at the home of W. A. Thomas, at No. 610 Queen street. The blaze was extinguished before any damage of consequence resulted. A defective chimney caused the blaze.

Funeral of Young Son.

The funeral of Ralph Lewis Barnhill, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Barnhill, whose death occurred early Monday morning, was held yesterday morning at 10 o'clock from the residence, No. 803 North Ninth street, conducted by Rev. George W. McClanahan, pastor of St. Matthew's English Lutheran church. The interment was in Bellevue cemetery.

Illustrated Lecture Postponed.

The illustrated lecture on Home Missions, which was to have been given tonight at the Brooklyn Baptist church has been postponed until a later date, the Home Mission Board at Atlanta having notified the pastor that it would be impossible to have the lecturer come here at this time. The regular mid-week prayer meeting will be held instead to which all are cordially invited.

"VICTORY IN DEFEAT" SUBJECT

Powerful Sermon by Dr. O'Kelley at First Baptist Church Last Night —Large Congregation and Deep Interest.

Growing in attendance and interest the revival services at the First Baptist church are attracting large congregations, both afternoon and evening. The congregation yesterday afternoon was particularly large for a day meeting and last night the church was comfortably filled with those seeking to benefit and be benefitted from the series.

Last night Rev. Dr. T. W. O'Kelley, of Raleigh, who is assisting the pastor, preached a strong and stirring sermon on the subject, "Victory in Defeat," taking his text from Psalms 65:3.

"This text," said Dr. O'Kelley, "sets forth in a few words man's hopeless condition on account of his sins, and the provision of God's grace to deliver him. There is no chance for us to win in the fight against sin unless we have help from God.

"Sin comes into our lives so stealthily that we are unaware of its presence until it has us within its power. It has the advantage of us because we are born in sin.

"Our only hope of deliverance from sin is for God to take them away. We must confess our sin, and be willing to accept deliverance as a free gift from God.

"God takes away our sin for Jesus' sake."

The afternoon service begins at 3:30 o'clock and the night service at 8 o'clock. The Business Men's Bible Class holds a prayer meeting at 7:30 every evening and the public is cordially invited to this meeting as well as to the regular services.

HEARING SET FOR TODAY.

Argument at Chambers in Case Growing Out of Sale of Stock.

Hearing on the injunction granted the plaintiff two or three weeks ago in the case of Iredell Meares, Esq., against T. A. Darby, a citizen of Florida; J. F. Bussells, of Southport, and the Carolina Coast Products Company, will take place at chambers before Judge Rountree this afternoon at 3 o'clock, having been continued from yesterday. The action grows out of the sale by the plaintiff to the defendant Darby of $3,000 worth of stock in the Carolina Coast Products Company. Notes were taken for the amount and it is alleged in the complaint that the notes were lost and when duplicates were requested the defendant Darby declined to issue them. The defendants, in their answer filed yesterday, set out among other things that it appears on the face of the complaint that the said notes are not due until the 19th day of January, 1914, and contend that no right of action accrues until the plaintiff can allege that the lost notes are due and unpaid.

Argument today will be on the question of making permanent until the final hearing of the suit the order enjoining the defendants from disposing of the stock sold to Mr. Darby by the plaintiff and afterwards transferred to Mr. Bussells, which said stock by direction of the order was placed in the hands of the Clerk of Superior Court to be held until some disposition of the injunction is made. The defendants, in their answer to the complaint, ask that the injunction be dissolved and that they recover the cost of the action. It is set forth that the injunction ties up $55,000 in securities and $3,800 of negotiable paper. The company was formed some weeks ago to develop the old Cape Fear Fisheries down the river.

The defendants are represented by Kenan & Stacy, while A. G. Ricaud and Herbert McClammy, Esqs., appear for the plaintiff.

COLD WEATHER CONTINUES.

Killing Frosts Throughout the South —Light in This Section.

The cold wave which has the whole country with the exception of the extremely southern points in Florida and Texas within its grasp still prevails, and heavy frosts are predicted for this section this morning. Mr. George W. Felger, local observer here, stated yesterday that he expected warmer weather for this immediate section after today, and that the cold weather which has approached from the west towards the east would move off the coast within the next 24 hours.

While Wilmington and the surrounding section had a light frost yesterday morning the other parts of the South were not so fortunate. Charlotte had a heavy frost. There was little frost reported in South Carolina, but Georgia, Alabama, Arkansas, Oklahoma, Mississippi and Texas reported heavy frosts in many sections. Little frost were reported in Louisiana. Georgia seems to have gotten the brunt of the cold wave, heavy frosts being reported from many towns in that State. Florida had low temperatures for that section but no frost was reported.

The warm places on the map yesterday were exceedingly scarce. They were confined mostly to Southern Florida and Southern Texas. Phoenix, Ariz., furnished a slight reminder of Summer with a maximum temperature for the preceding 24 hours of 90 degrees. Minnesota, as usual, maintained its reputation for being the coldest place on the map, the minimum temperature at St. Paul being 16 degrees and at Duluth, 14 degrees.

RECONSIDER FORMER PLANS.

Murchison National Bank May Decide to Erect Office Building.

It was learned yesterday that the directors of the Murchison National Bank have decided to re-open the question of plans for the new bank building to be erected by the institution on the present site of the Cape Fear Club building, directly across Front street from the present home of the bank. It had practically been determined to erect a building strictly for banking purposes, one story in height, but some of the directors are now in favor of a handsome office building, probably ten stories in height, with the home of the bank on the first floor, of course. Those who favor the office building take the position that as the lot is one of the most valuable in the city, located on one of the most prominent corners in the downtown district, that the bank ought by all means anticipate the growth of the city and the resultant demand for offices and erect thereon an office building in keeping with the value of the realty. Others are said to take the view that the institution is not in the office renting business, but in the banking business, therefore, a home for the bank is all that is desired. However, the fact that the question has been re-opened when it was practically decided to erect a strictly bank building, is significant and may mean that Wilmington is to have another skyscraper. Some definite action on the matter is expected in a short time, as it will not be long now until actual building operations will begin.

CASES IN SUPERIOR COURT

Several Cases Were Disposed of Yesterday, None of Any Great General Interest, However—Not Many on Docket.

While several cases were disposed of in Superior Court yesterday none were of any special general interest, the term thus far being taken up with rather unimportant matters. There are not very many really important cases on the docket for trial at this term.

In a case of the Seaboard Air Line against S. J. Davis a verdict in favor of the plaintiff was returned for $52.40 and interest from May 9th, 1909. The Seaboard was suing for the collection of some freight charges, which the defendant had declined to settle on the ground that the railroad owed him for a cow lost in transit some years ago.

Verdict for $25 in favor of the plaintiff was returned by the jury in the case of J. M. Satchwell against H. E. Bonitz. The case of Phil G. Kelley Co. against N. E. Gallagher is to be heard by a referee.

Frank Williams obtained a verdict against the Imperial Mutual Life & Health Insurance Company for $87.50 with interest from May 22nd, 1912. Judgment of non-suit was entered in the case of Frank W. Benton against the Maryland Casualty Company. Similar entry was made in the case of A. Dallam O'Brien against the Pennsylvania Steel Company.

Judgment for dismissal was given in the case of the Astypodyne Chemical Co. against the Aberdeen Wholesale Grocery Co. and judgment for the plaintiff was entered in the case of J. J. Darby against R. J. Armstrong, involving a small amount.

Mrs. Alice Lassiter was granted divorce from her husband, Alex. D. Lassiter.

Most of the afternoon was taken up with the trial of the case of the Kentucky Horse & Mule Company against John J. Furlong, and when court adjourned for the day not all the evidence had been adduced. The plaintiff is suing for $215 alleged to be due for a mule sold and delivered. The defendant admits the purchase of the mule, but contends that the animal was warranted to be sound and in good condition in every way, while it turned out that the mule was not fit for service and when the company refused to take it back it was kept at the expense of the defendant for ten months before it was finally sold for $20, it is averred. The main point in the case seems to be whether or not the animal was guaranteed by the dealers. W. P. Stacy, Esq., appears for the plaintiff company, while Thos. W. Davis, A. G. Ricaud and W. P. Gafford, Esqs., represent the defendant.

THE RECORDER'S COURT.

Three Months Each for Alphonso and Gus McNeill for Stealing Wood.

The cold weather came with a sudden swoop, and with it a great demand for fuel. Alphonso and Gus McNeill, both colored, were tempted beyond their strength, and having obtained a wagon went to the yards of the Consumers' Wood & Coal Company at Nutt and Hanover streets, where they loaded up with wood. This was so easily done that when they had disposed of this they went back for another load. In the meantime Mr. J. B. Fountain, manager of the company, had heard that the wood was being hauled away, and had an officer on the scene to arrest them. Making the best of an awkward situation yesterday they pleaded guilty to the larceny, and the Recorder let them off with three months each on the county roads.

Maggie Davis, colored, ordered a gallon of whiskey which would have been all right had it not been proven that she disposed of some of it for money. Part of it was found by the officers locked up in a suit case. This was brought into court and introduced as evidence. It was pure corn whiskey and many of the thirsty gazed long and intently at the golden fluid. The Recorder said he couldn't get around the evidence, and would have to send her to the county farm for three months.

Arthur Cole, colored, was charged with vagrancy, but said that he had a job near Scott's Hill and only came to Wilmington to visit friends. Judgment was suspended upon payment of the costs with the understanding that he was to go back to Scott's Hill at once. Willie McAlister, colored, beat his wife not once but several times. Patience ceased to be a virtue, and at last she swore out a warrant, charging him with assault. After he was locked up she became sorry of what she had done, and came into court yesterday morning to ask that the warrant be withdrawn. Solicitor Peschau and Recorder Furlong thought that he should be placed under the surveillance of the law. Judgment was suspended upon payment of the costs. The Recorder said it was his intention should McAlister come into court again for the same offense to give him two years on the roads.

Willie B. Newkirk and Luther Newkirk, both colored, charged with shooting a pistol within the city limits Saturday afternoon, were declared not guilty. Judgment was suspended upon payment of the costs in a case against Charles Robinson, colored, charged with violating the hitching ordinance. A case against William Cobb, charged with assaulting George Teachey, was continued until today.

Funeral of Miss Ennett.

The funeral of Miss Annie Ennett, whose death occurred Sunday night at Raleigh, was held yesterday at noon at Prospect church at Middle Sound, conducted by Rev. G. T. Adams, pastor of Fifth Street Methodist church. The body was brought here on the 10 o'clock train yesterday morning, and was taken immediately to the church where the funeral and interment took place. A large number of friends of the deceased attended the services. The pallbearers were Messrs. Chas. H. Keen, George T. Grotgen, Hardy LaNier and L. L. Larkins.

HOPE OF RECESS ABANDONED.

House Leaders Give Up Plans for Thirty Days' Rest.

Washington, Oct. 21.—Plans for administration leaders in the House for a thirty day recess to yield in his determination to keep the House in session as long as the Senate awaits action on the currency bill in committee.

"I am willing to stake my legislative judgment for all time to come on the proposition that the currency bill will not be reported as the President says, the first week in November or that it will be passed in the Senate within three weeks thereafter," declared Mr. Mann.

"I am also willing to stake my judgment on the proposition that it will not be passed in December. Everybody knows, except the President that the bill will not be passed now and if Congress was to submit to the direction of the President and remain in session we ought to fish or cut bait."

CHARGED WITH KILLING.

Fayetteville Negro Arrested—Sale of Silk Mills There.

Fayetteville, N. C. Oct. 21.—Frank Council, a notorious negro here, was arested early today while alone in a negro house near the Buckhorn power house, on suspicion of being the person who killed Richard McAllister, an old negro, in the rear of a cafe here Sunday night. The house in which Council was located was securely closed, the officers broke in and pulled Council from under a bed.

Melville G. Palliser, of New York, was the purchaser of the Ashley & Bailey silk mills here today at auction, the price being $23,000. This is the last sale of the string of mills in several States, the property comprising two large brick factory buildings, necessary additional buildings and a tract of 7.83 acres of land just outside the corporate limits. Only negro labor has been employed in these mills and a fine product has been turned out.

MANY SUBSCRIBE STOCK.

Wilmington Business Men Interested in New Steamboat Line.

Capt. M. L. Gilbert, representing the Morse Securities Co., of New York, who is spending a few days in the city for the purpose of securing the aid and co-operation of Wilmington shippers in putting on a line of freight steamers between Wilmington and Baltimore, yesterday secured a large number of subscriptions to the stock which local business men are asked to take as a guarantee of their support of the new line.

Capt. Gilbert and Mr. M. J. Corbett, president of the Chamber of Commerce, conferred yesterday regarding the new line but no announcement was made as to the result of their conference. Capt. Gilbert came to Wilmington at the instance of the Chamber, and it is understood that a committee from the Chamber has been investigating the proposition but no report has as yet been made.

Old People Need
A Bowel Stimulant

The Ideal One is a Mild Laxative-Tonic that Will Keep the Bowels Gently Active.

MRS. MARY A. P. DAVIDSON.

Healthy old age is so absolutely dependent upon the condition of the bowels that great care should be taken to see that they act regularly. The fact is that as age advances the stomach muscles become weak and inactive and the liver does not store up the juices that are necessary to prompt digestion.

Some help can be obtained by eating easily digested foods and by plenty of exercise, but this latter is irksome to most elderly people. One thing is certain, that a state of constipation should always be avoided, as it is dangerous to life and health. The best plan is to take a mild laxative as often as is deemed necessary. But with equal certainty it is suggested that cathartics, purgatives, physics, salts and pills be avoided, as they do but temporary good and are so harsh as to be a shock to a delicate system.

A much better plan and one that thousands of elderly people are following, is to take a gentle laxative-tonic like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which acts as nearly like nature as is possible. In fact, the tendency of this remedy is to strengthen the stomach and bowel muscles and so train them to act naturally again, when medicines of all kinds can usually be dispensed with. This is the opinion of many people of different ages, among them Mrs. Mary A. P. Davidson, of University Mound Home San Francisco, Cal. She is 78 and because of her sedentary habits had continual bowel trouble. From the day she began taking Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin she has had no further inconvenience and naturally she is glad to say kind things of this remedy.

A bottle can be bought of any druggist at fifty cents or one dolar. People usually buy the fifty cent size first and then, having convinced themselves of its merits, they buy the dollar size, which is more economical. Results are always guaranteed or money will be refunded. Elderly persons of both sexes can follow these suggestions with every assurance of good results.

Families wishing to try a free sample bottle can obtain it postpaid by addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 419 Washington St., Monticello, Ill. A postal card with your name and address on it will do.

INDIGESTION OVERCOME.

Overcome by Simple Remedy.

Hurried and careless habits of eating, irregular meals and foods that do not harmonize, tend to weaken the digestive organs and result in different forms of stomach trouble.

If you are one of the unfortunates who have drifted into this condition, eat simple foods only, slowly, regularly and take Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic.

Mrs. H. J. Smith, Thomasville, Ga., says: "I suffered from a stomach trouble, was tired, worn out and nervous. A friend advised me to take Vinol. My stomach trouble soon disappeared and now I eat heartily and have a perfect digestion and I wish every tired, weak woman could have Vinol, for I never spent any money in my life that did me so much good."

The recovery of Mrs. Smith was due to the combined action of the medicinal elements of the cods' livers—aided by the blood-making and strength-creating properties of tonic iron, which are contained in Vinol. We will return the purchase money every time Vinol fails to benefit.—Robt. R. Bellamy, druggist, Wilmington, N. C.

Warner Feature at Bijou.

Again Warner feature day at the popular Bijou. This means joy to hundreds and that the people's favorite amusement spot will be crowded to the doors both afternoon and night. These features, always in three big reels and given as an extra offering at the Bijou, which holds the exclusive right to their use in Wilmington, never fail to attract amusement lovers. They are eagerly looked forward to. Today's Warner is one of the most gigantic and impressive ever manufactured. It is "The Power of Civilization," telling of what civilization has done for the Red Skin, as embodied in a highly dramatic story, with thrilling scenes galore and a mass of beautiful scenery. In all three thousand people take part in the drama, with a cast of notable players, and there are 80 distinct scenes. It is a story of the power of education, laid around the Indians. Among the very spectacular scenes are the thrilling horse race, squaw races, football game and rescue by motor boat. It is the biggest and most pretentious Warner feature ever presented.

There are, of course, other star films today at the Bijou, including the Vitagraph's "Fortune's Turn", with Ned Finley and Rose Tapley in the stellar roles. There will positively be no raise in the price of admission from 5 cents.

Four Pictures at the Grand.

Four of those great films, the pick of the best, are on at the cozy, handsome Grand Theatre today, and they include a big special two-reel release which comes direct to the Grand from the factory. This special release is Essanay's "The Right of Way", and it is a powerful dramatic, telling of an old man who defends his land from invasion of the railroad. He has a little plot of ground upon which his wife is buried and he defies the railroad surveyors. The end is a happy one, but the path leading to it is full of excitement. There are numerous thrilling spectacles that will stir the blood. A fine cast will be seen in the rendition.

There are two swell comedy pictures on today, that will nicely balance the show, and, of course, amusement lovers want to laugh, Kalem's "The Burglar and the Baby" is a great fun novelty, while "The One Best Bet" is also a roar for genuine mirth, telling how a chap steals money from his wife to play the races and the predicament he finds himself in. Remember, too, that the Grand is awfully cozy this kind of weather.

COTTON MARKET DEPRESSED

Lost About Half of Gain of Day Before —Official Weather Advices Indicate Killing Frost.

New York, Oct. 21.—The cotton market lost about half of yesterday's big advance during today's trading.

Official weather advices indicated killing frost at many points in the Eastern and Central belts, following the extremely low temperatures reported west of the river on Monday, but the situation in this respect seemed the signal for more realizing than fresh buying, and the market was nervous and unsettled during the entire day, with the close steady, at a net loss of 21 to 25 points.

There appeared to be a lot of overnight buying orders around the ring at the start and it looked as if many of yesterday's buyers had determined to take profits on the publication of bad weather news from the Eastern belt this morning. First prices were easy, at a decline of 4 points on October and of 18 to 24 points on later months. Cables were better than due, while the weather map indicated very unseasonable temperatures, with some claiming that frosts were more general than ever before reported, as early in the Autumn. The situation in this respect brought in enough fresh buying to cause a rally of 7 or 8 points right after the call, but heavy general realizing continued, and, as prices eased off the pressure against the market was increased by local operations for a reaction, which had the encouragement of prospects for warmer weather and bearish private ginning figures. Trade buying, bull support of covering caused occasional bulges, but the general tendency of the market was lower, and closing prices were within a point of two of the lowest. Memphis authority estimates ginning to October 18th at 6,356,000 bales, against 6,873,000 last year, and it was rumored that another Southern statistical bureau placed it at 6,950,000 bales.

Spot cotton, steady. Middling uplands, 14.10; do, gulf, 14.35. No sales.

URGED PASSAGE OF LAW.

Senator LaFollette Thinks "Able Seaman" Bill a Necessity.

Washington, Oct. 21.—Rigid laws requiring "able seamen" in sufficient numbers to man all life boats were declared by Senator LaFollette today to be a necessity for the safety of passengers and crews of vessels on the ocean and the Great Lakes.

Urging the adoption of his own substitute for the Nelson "seaman's servitude" bill, which President Taft refused to approve and which is again before Senate, Senator LaFollette said the Nelson bill failed to meet the situation, because it did not require enough experienced and trained men in the deck crews of vessels. The substitute would require at least two able seamen for each life boat.

The Senator also insisted safety at sea might be threatened in a crisis by inability of the crew to understand its officers. His bill provides that 75 per cent. of the crew shall understand the language of the officers.

The Senate will vote on seaman's bill Thursday.

STOCK MARKET BOUYANT

Not for Weeks Had Street Seen Such an Outburst of Strength—Leading Shares Gain Several Points.

New York, Oct. 21.—Stocks rose buoyantly today. Not for weeks had the street seen such an outburst of strength. Leading shares gained from 2 to 4 points, with advances of as much as eight points in exceptional cases.

The amount of business in the first hour's trading was nearly as great as the total for yesterday's session. The advance was achieved largely at the expense of the bears. Short covering was responsible for the heaviest buying, especially in Steel and Union Pacific.

The sharp rise in American stocks in London gave the market its first impulse upward. News from Washington that the Inter-State Commerce Commission had approved an increase in certain freight rates in the Missouri river district boosted prices still further.

Further reports from Washington that important amendments would be made in the currency bill, also helped the movement along.

Increased speculative activity was facilitated by conditions in the money market.

Although there was no further essential change in time rates, the tone was easier reflecting the improved position of the banks as shown in the last statement, and recent offerings of money here by foreign lenders.

Bonds showed general strength, with a good inquiry for some low-priced issues. Total sales, par value, $2,000,000 United States 2s advanced ½c., the 4s ¼, and Panama 2s a point on call.

Total stock sales, 576,000, including Amalgamated Copper, 53,800; American Tobacco, 600; C. and O., 2,700; Lehigh Valley, 3,400; N. and W., 600; Reading, 80,900; S. A. PHIDIPPINES ARE GRATEFUL

nize the independence of the islands. The immediate step of granting us a majority on the commission places in our hands the instruments of power and responsibility for the establishment by ourselves of a stable Filipino government. We fully appreciate and are deeply grateful for the confidence reposed in us by the government of the United States. We look upon the appointment of the Honorable Francis Burton Harrison as Governor General as the unmistakable harbinger of the new era in which we expect the attitude of the people to be one of co-operation and finally we believe happily the experiments of imperialism have come to an end and that Colonial exploitation has passed into history.

"The epoch of mistrust has been closed and the Filipinos, upon having thrown open to them the doors of opportunity, are required to assume the burden of responsibility which it would be inexcusable cowardice on their part to avoid or decline. Owing to this, a few days have sufficed to bring about a good understanding between Americans and Filipinos, which it had been impossible to establish during the 13 years past. We are convinced that every onsward step, while relieving the Americans of their responsibilities in the islands will, as in the past, fully demonstrate the present capacity of the Filipino people to establish a government of its own and guarantee in a permanent manner the safety under such government of the life, property and liberty of the residents of the islands, national, as well as foreign.

"We do not wish to say by this that there will not be difficulties and embarassments nor do we even expect that the campaign, open or concealed, of the enemies of the Filipinos' cause will cease soon, but we feel sure that through a conservative use of the powers entrusted to us the Filipino people will, with God's favor and the help of America, emerge triumphantly from the test, however difficult it may be."

May Not be Confirmed.

Washington, Oct. 21.—President Wilson's appointment of four native Filipinos to the Philippine commission will not be confirmed by the Senate until assurances have been given that the new officials will use their utmost efforts to stamp out slavery in the islands.

Senator Borah has made it known that he will use every effort to prevent confirmation unless he is assured of their attitude.

It is understood that inquiries have been made to get information that will satisfy the Senate as to the individual views of the new commissioners.

world. Thence is will proceed through the canal to San Francisco."

Russia Sends Representatives.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 21.—It is understood that the Russian admiralty will send one or two naval officers to represent the government at the opening of the Panama canal, probably Captain Nebolsine, formerly naval attache at Washington, or his predecessor, Commander Boutakoff, or both of these officers.

The question of sending warships to take part in the celebration appears so far to not have been entertained, ostensibly because the cruise and training programme interfere but in reality for reasons similar to those which impelled Russia not to participate officially in the Panama-Pacific Exposition at San Francisco, reasons said to be dictated by the foreign officers nad not by naval consideration.

SECRETARY REDFIELD SPEAKS.

Tide of American Business is at Flood, He Says.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 21.—With the declaration that "the tide of American business in the foreign field is at its flood" and that means must be employed to maintain it, Secretary Redfield addressing the Board of Commerce here today, made a direct appeal to business men to ask Congress to appropriate more funds for the prosecution of the work of his department.

The Secretary explained his proposed reform of commercial representation abroad, through the appointment of a corps of special agents and supervision of the commercial activities of the various consuls.

Mr. Redfield declared his department had an ambitious programme of investigation and trade futherance. He said it was the intention of the government to press it vigorously "if funds were provided."

"For example," said he, "at this present moment the inquiry into the pottery industry, which is a very important and intended to be a very helpful investigation, is almost at a standstill for lack of funds.

"I assume you are aware of the great advance of American export trade in manufactures during the last year. Time was, within the memory of most of you, when we sold abroad chiefly the products of our fields and farms or of our mines. We were known as a foor-exporting country, and in a sense did largely feed the nations. That day is gone. Our exports of crude foodstuffs are but 18 per cent of the total, and the major place in our export trade is filled by the products of our manufacturers, in which work you of Detroit have had a large share.

"To sell our manufactures abroad to the extent of over fifteen hundred millions in value in one year is no small thing; but when this continues to expand at the approximate rate of half a million dollars daily, and when in this total the largest item by far is that of fully finished manufactures, which is not only, as I have said, the biggest item, but that which is growing fastest, then the statement is very much more marked."

In concluding the Secretary told his hearers that, if the funds were forthcoming, he proposed to reorganize the bureau of corporations so that a systematic inquiry into all big combinations could be made. This, he said, would not be undertaken in any inimical spirit, but solely for the purpose of securing information which he believed the government should have.

COL. ASHLEY HORNE DEAD.

One of State's Most Prominent Citizens and Old Soldiers.

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 22.—Col. Ashley Horne, of Clayton, died suddenly at 1 o'clock this morning.

He was one of the State's most prominent citizens, a Confederate veteran. Five years ago he was a candidate for Governor, but was defeated for the nomination. This year he gave $5,000 for the erection of a monument to the North Carolina Women of the Confederacy, the monument to be shortly erected.

interest, as how many votes Sulzer would be able to swing for his speakership candidacy in case of his election. The concensus of opinion was that the next Assembly probably will be divided among the three parties and if this prediction is true and Sulzer is able to muster the undivided support of one faction and a few insurgents from other quarters, he would prove a big factor in the race.

Sulzer himself does not admit that he has deserted the Democratic party by accepting the Progressive nomination and the Republican endorsement. "I am a non-partisan candidate," he declared today, "and I am fighting for a principle instead of a party."

Speculation was rife here today as to just what Tammany would do in the fight. It is known that all of the unused evidence in the impeachment trial is in the hands of the Tammany leaders and rumor has it that this material soon will appear in pamphlet form for general distribution.

Noisy Reception.

New York, Oct. 21.—William Sulzer got a noisy reception here tonight on his arrival from Albany. At the Grand Central station a crowd running into the thousands had assembled to meet him as he stepped from the train a volley of cheers and an ear-splitting noise from horns and other devices saluted him.

Mr. Sulzer smiled as he struggled for a passageway through the crowd extending his hand at intervals to grasp that of a friend. The crowd hurried him from the waiting room into an automobile which started downtown followed by a procession of taxicabs bearing a delegation of 300 men from the Sixth Assembly district on the East Side in which Mr. Sulzer has been nominated for the Assembly on the Progressive ticket.

The route the automobile took to reach the Eastside led past Tammany Hall in 14th street. The chauffeur of the Sulzer car brought the machine to a stop. Other automobiles gathered close around and traffic stood still while a dramatic demonstration ensued, one so noisy that policemen for blocks around came running to the scene.

Crowds gathered. Frantic men, Sulzer enthusiasts, leaped from their automobiles, ran to Tammany's doors and shook their clenched fists at the famous political headquarters. Mr. and Mrs. Sulzer glanced once at the building, then turned away until the demonstration ended and the procession of cars moved on.

The former Governor's face was set grimly as he listened to the cheers given him during this time. Approaching Progressive headquarters in the district where he was nominated, the procession passed the Old Colonial Mansion, since remodeled into an apartment house where the Sulzers once lived, at Second avenue and Tenth streets, Mr. Sulzer gazed at the third floor where he lived so long. Mrs. Sulzer reached out and held his arm.

Through the Eastside people thronged fire escapes and roofs and hung over window sills, shouting greeting to their assembly nominee. In front of Progressive headquarters when the demonstration reached its height, Mr. and Mrs. Sulzer stood in their car and tears rolled down their cheeks as the people cheered incessantly.

Finally to stop the noise, Mr. Sulzer stepped upon the seat and waved his black soft hat.

"Friends, I have come back home—" he began, brokenly, and another demonstration took place before he could continue. He recalled that he had represented the district five years in the Assembly and 18 years in Congress. "I want to go back to Albany to represent you and not Mr. Murphy," he went on. "To represent the people and not the bosses who removed me because I stood by the people and I know that the people are going to stand by me.

"My heart is too full tonight to talk further, but I shall be back again tomorrow night to tell you things that will make you blush with shame for the citizenship of the State, which is in the clutches of a corrupt, cruel, relentless and arrogant boss, who says he will destroy you if you do not do his bidding."

CELEBRATE APPLE DAY.

Citizens of Indiana and Massachusetts Indulge in Rare Observance.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 21.—Governor Samuel M. Ralston, in a communication issued yesterday, requests that the residents of Indiana eat at least one apple each today, which he has named as Apple Day in Indiana. The Governor's request was made in an open letter to Edward R. Smith, president of the Indiana Apple Show Commission.

"There has been in the past too much neglect of the orchards, not in Indiana but elsewhere," wrote the Governor. "Like Topsy, apples were not 'raised,' but they 'jes growed' and the trees were expected to bring forth fruit without much, if any aid from the farmer.

"This indifference has cost our State and country a vast sum both in the loss of apples and orchards in many cases.

"I heartily approve your suggestion that tomorrow, the third Tuesday in October, be observed as Apple Day and that each person in the State should eat at least one apple on that day in accordance with the tradition that 'an apple each day keeps the doctor away.'"

Boston, October 21.—Natural Apple Day was observed throughout Massachusetts today. This State is the home of the Baldwin apple, which was first discovered and developed in the town of Wilmington. During the past few years many old orchards have been renovated and new ones started throughout the State, largely through the efforts of the State Board of Agriculture.

RAILROAD THIEVES.

Detroit and Toledo Detectives Make Big Haul of Freight.

Toledo, Ohio, Oct. 21.—Detroit and Toledo detectives and local police this afternoon made eight arrests and are expected to make more, obtained several confessions and recovered part of loot valued at $100,000 stolen from local freight houses and cars of the railroads since February 1st, last. Several wagon loads of plunder, including barrels of whiskey, cases of cigarettes, bolts of silk and quantities of other merchandise and metals have been recovered.

Greenville, S. C., Oct. 21.—Wind at times reaching almost proportions of a gale, swept Greenville yesterday with a big drop in temperature. Many awnings and signs were damaged by the gale while a large bill board was blown down on Annie Donaldson, a negro woman, so badly injuring her that death resulted in a short time. The bill board had been erected near the sidewalk and fell on her as she was passing along the street.

merely indicate the alleged obscene passages and not the entire article in which they appeared. He said that he had directions to support this but did not produce them.

In announcing his decision Judge Foster said:

"It appears in this indictment, in all three counts, that the publication alleged to have been sent through the mails in violation of the law is an extract from a complete article. It is clearly my opinion that the government is required to plead the entire article. The article is obscene as a whole, or is not obscene, and we cannot take out a few paragraphs here and there and charge them as obscene, and make them the basis of an indictment. It may be that a paragraph here and there is sufficient to impress the whole publication with obscenity, but the defendant is entitled to be charged with sending the complete article. The publication is an entire thing. It is not a part or an extract. We would be able to indict a sender of the Bible on this theory. We might take the episode of Potiphar's wife, or the relations of Onan to his brother's widow or something of that sort and indict just as well.

"I am not pretending to rule on any other feature of this indictment. The question of whether it is obscene if set out in a dead language, is not passed upon. On this view I will sustain the motion to quash.

"It is possible for the government to re-indict and make these entire articles part of the indictments. I think that is due to the defendant in this case."

What course the United States district attorney will pursue still I sin doubt as he has refused, so far, to discuss the matter. Mr. Watson before leaving Augusta for his home at Thomson, Ga., expressed himself as greatly pleased with the outcome of the trial.

WEATHER CONDITIONS.

Wintry Weather Touches the Sunny South—Snow.

Washington, Oct. 21.—Heralded by cold blasts and an advance guard of snow yesterday, the first touch of Wintry weather was general today east of the Mississippi and some parts of the Northwest.

Shifting gales which whipped the Middle Atlantic coast and the Lakes region had gone their way to sea leaving crisp cool areas behind and promises of light snow in some sections.

General frosts today touched the South Atlantic region as far as Florida and there was cold weather through the Mississippi and Ohio valleys.

Fair cold weather tonight east of the Mississippi with probable local snows in the Lakes region was the official forecast.

TAKE UP DETAILS OF CASE.

Arbitration Board in Railroad Dispute Will Finish Saturday.

New York, Oct. 21.—The board of arbitration in the Eastern railroads dispute began today to take up the detailed demands of the trainmen and conductors which it had been considering as a whole up to adjournment last Friday.

The board will meet in executive session daily from now up to and including Friday. In case the award is not reached Friday evening a session will be held Saturday, the time limit for the award expiring Saturday at midnight.

Seth Low, chairman of the board, said tonight every possible effort will be made to have the award ready for filing by Saturday. It will go into effect within ten days after filing.

Until you have saved a large sum of money before putting it in bank, but deposit the small amounts and let them save themselves.

Take the nickels and dimes, the quarters and halves out of your pockets, and put them in bank, where they will be safe from thieves and fires, and away from the danger of useless spending.
